Battle Against Smallpox Spread In Flood Areas

Twenty-One Refugees Are Suffering With The Disease

ALL VICTIMS FOUND IN SINGLE DWELLING

Rushing All Those Likely In Contact To Isolation Camp In Pines

BY LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BATON ROUGE, La., May 12.—The chief effort of the $10,000,000 Mississippi flood relief machinery narrowed today from hundreds of thousands of homeless to twenty-one smallpox patients.

A battered old river steamer shoved into the Red Cross camp at Harrisonburg, Catahoula Parish, last evening with twenty-two refugees from Dailey's Landing. All were whites. Twenty-one had small pox.

Rescued From Dwelling.

They had been rescued from the second floor of a farm dwelling one hundred and fifty miles up the Beouff river, where they had been marooned for ten days. There had been sufficient food, but nothing else. Medical supplies were beyond miles of muddy water, all sanitary facilities were lacking.

Today the sorry little band is attended in the pine forests at the tip of the Bayou Macon hills, where an isolation camp is in readiness for all others from the same district whom the rescue armada of stricken Louisiana can round up. The entire community about Dailey's Landing will be rushed, postehaste, to Harrisonburg.

Airplanes took off from Natchez at day break to carry serum to camp. Everyone rescued along the northern reaches of the Beouff and its tributaries will be isolated for weeks. Everyone in Harrisonburg will be inoculated.

Believe Spread Checked

Although there are three refugee camps in the Harrisonburg district, caring for approximately 12,000 refugees, Red Cross medical officers believe that immediate isolation of the new arrivals has curbed the probabilities of a devastating epidemic of the dread disease.

Dailey's landing is in Franklin Parish, in the north end of the state, the section which has been under water for almost two weeks from the Arkansas overflow.

The stricken knot of refugees was discovered by Miss Winnifred Calahan, a volunteer Red Cross worker, who flew from Harrisonburg to Natchez in a navy seaplane to prepare the concentration centre there for its last great fight. Today she flew back with thousands of tubes of vaccine. Miss Calahan has been connected recently with civic welfare organizations in Cleveland, O. Her home is in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Plight Discovered

"The plight of the refugees along the Beouff is almost beyond description," Miss Calahan told International News Service over long distance telephone from Natchez. "These people were cooped up in the top floor of an old house. They told us they had been there for 10 days. The water had driven them from the ground floor. They had food, but were entirely without sanitary facilities."

Armed guards patrol the Harrisonburg isolation camp. When the rescue boat arrived, doctors recognized immediately that the desolate cargo were afflicted with some contagious disease. No one was permitted aboard. National guardsmen took up a twilight vigil against new disaster in flood-staggered Louisiana.

Carnegie Steel Company Adds $1,000 To Fund

Big Corporation Shows Interest In Development Of New Castle Through Mr. Tully

Among the contributions which have been reported to the New Castle expansion movement during the past day or so is one of $1,000, presented through Local Superintendent R. J. Tully for the Carnegie Steel Company.

The contribution was much appreciated by the workers in the expansion movement, as it indicated that the Carnegie Company is manifesting an interest in the development of this city, as well as its own big plant here.

While, as was stated at the meeting of the workers, the Carnegie Company's chief interest here is in the successful operation of the steel plant and the matter of providing a place of employment for hundreds of New Castle men, the subscription is an added evidence of the spirit of the company and the company's willingness to aid with local projects.

Mr. Tully, as the representative of the company, was given a most deserved tribute by the expansion campaign workers at the meeting at the First Christian church.

They stopped for a few minutes at the U. S. Army recruiting office and a motorcycle officer showed them the route through the city.

May Never Find Bodies Of French Atlantic Flyers

Hope Of Safety Of Captain Nungesser Is Rapidly Fading Away

SEARCHERS UNABLE TO FIND ANY TRACE

American Flyers Are Preparing To Start Big Hop To Paris

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 12.—Belief that the bodies of Capt. Charles Nungesser and Capt. Francois Coli, French airmen who were lost over the Atlantic while trying to make a non-stop flight from Paris to New York, may never be found began to grow into a certainty today following another 24 hours of fruitless search.

It has been more than 100 hours since the aviators hopped off and, according to their own schedule, they are three days overdue here.

Despite widespread search by navy and merchant ships and airplanes all the way across the Atlantic not a trace of the missing airplane has been found.

Dirigible To Aid.

The U. S. navy dirigible Los Angeles, which crossed the Atlantic from Germany to this country in 1924, was ordered by the navy department to join the search today. The dirigible was under orders to proceed from the air station at Lakehurst, N. J., and cruise along the coast of Long Island and southern New England.

False hopes were aroused several times during the past 24 hours by erroneous reports that the aviators or their plane had been sighted.

Advices from Newfoundland report that citizens there heard the motor of an airplane on Monday which may have been Capt. Nungesser's machine.

It now begins to look as though

U. S. Fliers May Be Able To Make Hop On Saturday

(International News Service)

CURTISS FIELD, Garden City, N. Y., May 12.—Weather reports from official bureaus and from steamships at sea today heightened the hope of Lloyd W. Bertaud and Clarence D. Chamberlin that they might be able to take off Saturday morning for Paris in the Bellanca monoplane Columbia.

Rumors were that the Bellanca would take off tomorrow morning to get a head start on Captain Charles A. Lindbergh, who is heading east to prepare for the take off. Lindbergh is entered for the Orteig prize offer of $25,000 and intends to make the flight alone.

Charles A. Levine, head of the Columbia Aircraft Corporation and owner of the Bellanca denied the rumor. He stated positively that no start will be made before Saturday morning and perhaps not even then if weather conditions present a serious menace.

Ellwood City Church Case Before Court

Develops Into Technical Argument As To Right To Dismiss Pastor

LARGE CROWD AT COURT HEARING

Defense To Be Presented As Hearing Continues This Afternoon

What promised to be an airing of the differences in the congregation of the First Siebneburger-Sachens Lutheran church of Ellwood City, turned out to be a technical argument as to the right of a part of a congregation to resolve themselves into a disciplinary body and dismiss the pastor when the hearing on the preliminary injunction was heard in court here this morning before Judge R. L. Hildebrand.

The church people were present in scores, one side of the court room being taken up by them. The case is that of certain members of the church against Rev. Johan Zultner, in which it is asked that he be restrained from preaching or appearing in the church. It is alleged that his administration of the church has not been good and that certain members passed a resolution dismissing him.

For the plaintiffs, several witnesses were called for the purpose of showing the number of members who were signers of the resolution. The resolutions were read. Martin Ringer and John Paal, temporary president and secretary of the insurgents testified that they had gone through the usual procedure in calling a special meeting of the congregation but that this had been broken up by the Ellwood City chief of police. Rev. George F. Hegele

Five Accused In Pittsburgh Bank Case, Acquitted

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—The five men accused of conspiring to defraud the Brotherhood Savings & Trust Co. of $102,500 in the $320,000 bond swindle case, were acquitted by a jury in criminal court here today before Judge Davis Henderson of Fayette county.

The men acquitted were Roland McCrady, former president of the bank; John L. Nelson, treasurer of the bank; William J. Kelly, former vice president; Frank Redman, alleged broker in the deal, and Charles Knapp, who was sentenced some time ago to serve from 18 months to three years in the Western penitentiary after he had pleaded no defense to the larceny of funds of the bank.

The verdict was reached late yesterday afternoon, but was not read in court until today.

The trial was conducted on charges of a conspiracy to defraud the bank of its funds through the purchase of alleged "bargain bonds". The defendants also have been charged with embezzlement and larceny.

Assistant District Attorney H. R. Phillips was expected to announce today whether he would press the pending charges.

Friday The Thirteenth Their Day Of Doom

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 12.—Tomorrow—Friday the thirteenth—will be more than a day of ill omen for Mrs. Ruth Snyder and Henry Judd Gray, the convicted murderers of the woman's husband, Albert Snyder.

For them it will be a day of doom. Supreme Court Justice Townsend Scudder has decided to speed up the sentencing of the couple and instead of pronouncing the death sentences on Monday, as originally planned, he will pronounce them tomorrow in the Queens County court house at Long Island City.

Immediately after the sentences are imposed the couple will be taken to the death house in Sing Sing prison, at Ossining, in separate automobiles.

At first it was believed that the physical and mental condition of Mrs. Snyder might have had something to do with the moving up of the day of sentence, but it was explained that Justice Scudder will have to preside in another court on Monday. Counsel for both defendants agreed to having sentences imposed tomorrow so the judge set Friday as the day.

Mrs. Snyder is somewhat improved although her health is still broken. Edgar F. Hazelton, her lawyer, said that she had suffered seven attacks of illness in her cell in the Queens County jail since the jury brought in the verdict of murder in the first degree.

The New Castle News, May 11, 1927.
New Castle, Pa.

Attention: F. Rentz (President)

Dear Mr. Rentz:

The Outlet, the largest "charge account" store in New Castle, desires to express its appreciation of the splendid results obtained through the use of your excellent paper during the past year.

We are now planning our advertising campaign for the next year and because of the proven "pulling power" of your columns and the decided advantage it has over direct mail advertising, we have decided to eliminate entirely our direct mail advertising and triple the amount of space previously used in your paper.

We realize, of course, that the remarkable values, plus the unusual credit service granted by The Outlet, plays a great part in making this store the leader of its kind in this city. Our new guaranteed auto tire department also has added to the store's popularity.

However, we feel that the wonderful circulation of your paper in Lawrence and surrounding counties has been a very important factor in putting our store across. We are boosters for The New Castle News and want to thank you for your courtesy and co-operation.

Very truly yours,

THE OUTLET,

Jury Disagrees In Damage Suit Against Chaplin

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 12. — After deliberating more than seven hours, the jury in the $50,000 damage suit brought by Leo Loeb against Charles S. Chaplin, disagreed and was discharged early today by Federal Judge Bondy.

Loeb alleged that Chaplin had plagiarized part of a scenario called "The Rookie," using parts of it in the film comedy "Shoulder Arms."

Chaplin testified that he had not used any part of the Loeb scenario while filming "Shoulder Arms," but had worked only from his own notes, the story in his own mind as the work of filming progressed.

Motions will be submitted in a few days and it is likely that Loeb will seek to bring another action.

Chamberlin And Bertaud Plan Paris Flight

Intrepid Flyers, Breakers Of Flight Record, To Attempt Ocean Crossing

SEVERAL FLYERS READY TO START

(International News Service)

CURTISS FIELD, GARDEN CITY, N. Y., May 12.—Sudden activity behind locked and guarded doors of the Bellanca hangar here today resulted in reports that Clarence Chamberlin and Lloyd Bertaud were preparing to leave immediately on their non-stop flight to Paris. Chamberlin said they would certainly start at the latest tomorrow morning and the hour of starting has been tentatively set at 1 a. m.

News from St. Louis that Dare Devil Lindbergh was winging his way to New York with the intention of stopping for gas and then going on to Paris resulted in the sudden spurt of activity at the Bellanca hangar. The motor was heard roaring in the hangar and mechanics were busily at work, but silence replaced the frank statements that marked the previous activities of the fliers.

Another factor believed to be bringing Chamberlin and Bertaud into immediate action was the delivery of the Byrd plane, America, to Roosevelt field. It was officially delivered by the Atlantic Airport Corporation to Rodman Wanamaker and the backers of Commander Byrd. This leaves Byrd in a position to make an early start. With the threat of two rivals the Bellanca expedition's lead in the flight is now menaced.

Rene Fonck and the Russian plane builder, Ivor Sikorsky, are at work on two new planes at Port Washington. They are also working behind closed doors and friends say they will be ready for a flight sooner than rival fliers realize.

BATTLE AGAINST SMALLPOX SPREAD IN FLOOD AREAS

havoc in Northern Louisiana, sand boil in the main channel levees increased the tension throughout the southern half of the state, which has been keyed for days for a break in the Bayou Des Glaises levees in southern Avoyelles parish.

"The water behind this last barrier of the flood has been rising six inches a day for the last three days," said a state engineer's report this morning from Simmesport, at the junction of the Atchafalaya and Old Rivers. Thousands of levee defenders continued their heroic struggle against the inexorable waters as the machinery of rescue and relief speeded its preparations to cope with disaster in the six rich and fertle parishes beyond the slowly crumbling protecting wall.

On the east bank of the river, eighteen miles south of Baton Rouge, a public health service vessel stands guard today over the famous Carville leper colony, where 250 patients are endangered by the rising waters.

Three sand boils in the east bank levees within twenty-five miles of Baton Rouge during the last four days have soaked the fifty foot levees through. Wood revetments have been thrown out into the river as protection to the soft levee a few miles from the leper colony. More than two million sand bags have been piled up in one section of a mile and a half just south of Carville.

Crest Is Near

Citizens of the community patrol the levees, watching for new points of seepage. Weather reports predict a rise of 10 to 13 inches in the Carville region before the crest of the flood passes, members of the district levee board are manifestly annoyed but insist their dikes are safe. A break in the east bank levees south of Baton Rouge has been held by federal engineers to be far less likely than a crevasse in the west levees.

Panic prevailed in the Carville district for several hours last night when a single sand bag was washed out of the levee. A member of the dike patrol who chanced to be on the spot was swept from his feet and rolled down the inside of the twenty-five foot wall before the inrushing water. Picking himself up from the mud he ran down the road in the manner of Paul Revere broadcasting on a long lung length, "Crevasse, Crevasse." The community for five miles around was aroused in a flash. Hundreds gathered about the deserted patrol, threw in a few sand bags and stopped the flow. The incident is symptomatic of the nervous state in which land owners and tenant farmers throughout several thousand square miles in Louisiana have lived for almost a month.

GEO. L. PATTERSON FATALLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

McCombs was in the back seat of a Buick coupe.

Car Hogs Road

The concrete was rather wet. Howe says he was driving down the hill at a moderate rate of speed when he noticed a car coming toward him from the direction of New Castle. It was a small car and was hogging the road, being driven with the left-hand wheels past the center. As he approached it and the driver did not get over to his own side of the road, Howe says that he pulled off to avoid striking it and in doing so left the road and plunged into the gutter.

The gutter at this point is about three feet deep. "I saw that I would upset if I tried to keep my left wheels on the bank," said Howe, "in telling his story to Coroner J. P. Caldwell this morning. "I therefore applied the brakes and straddled the center of the gutter. The sides of the gutter were grassy and the wheels appeared to slide on the wet grass for a considerable distance, when the machine brought up against the concrete wing of a culvert.

"As the machine came to a sudden stop Patterson and I were thrown against the windshield, breaking the glass. I was slightly stunned but quickly recovered and turned my attention to the others. McCombs had received only a slight cut but Patterson appeared dazed and was bleeding from a cut on the right side of his head. I asked him if he was badly hurt. He said he did not know. McCombs remarked that they had a narrow escape.

Police Lieutenant Arrives.

"McCombs and I were trying to get one of the car doors open, when a woman arrived on the scene, a few seconds later a man, and then U. G. Harper, lieutenant of police of this city, who helped to get the door open and extricate us from the car. By the time we got out Patterson appeared to be getting weaker, and was attempting to say something, which I could not understand."

Lieut. U. G. Harper says that he had been to New Wilmington and was returning home when he happened on the scene of the accident. After helping to get Patterson out of the car and seeing that he was apparently badly injured he got him in his car and started with him to the Shenango Valley hospital, leaving the other two men at the scene of the wreck. Patterson relapsed into unconsciousness when but a short distance from the scene of the accident. When Harper arrived with him at the Shenango Valley hospital, Dr. L. W. Wilson was called and found him dead.

The only marks on Patterson were a cut a little over an inch long on the right side of his head, about two inches back of the temple, a cut on the right elbow and a slight scratch on the left ear. It is believed that his skull was fractured by the cut on his head, and that he died from hemorrhage of the brain. It is believed that the cut on the head was produced by being thrown against the iron, encasing the windshield.

Driver Reports

After Patterson had been taken several other automobiles arrived and Howe and McCombs were brought to this city. McCombs was not badly hurt and was able to take a train for his home at Crafton. Howe came to police headquarters where he reported the accident and waited until the arrival of the coroner, who had gone to the scene of the accident.

Howe is a special representative of the Crescent Brick Company of Pittsburgh. McCombs is also connected with the same company. The two men had been in New Castle looking after some brick contracts on projected buildings. Howe is a frequent visitor here and is well known to city officials and other citizens, as he is frequently in New Castle. After completing some work here yesterday Howe and McCombs had to go to Sharon to see some steel men regarding contracts. George L. Patterson, a friend of both men, went with them. Howe says that they remained all night in Sharon, starting home early this morning.

Crowded Off Road

Howe says that he has been driving a car for the past fifteen years and that the accident would not have occurred had he not been crowded off the road. He believes that if his wheels had not slid on the wet grass he would have been able to bring the car to a stop before it hit the culvert. It was slightly down grade where the accident occurred and the car was squipped with four wheel brakes.

The impact of the machine with the concrete wing of the culvert, broke the concrete on the side next the road. The concrete was about eight inches thick. Several pieces of the concrete were also broken off. The car was badly damaged. On the side next the roadway, the front axle was bent up, so that the wheel was in a horizontal position and forced back. The right hand wheel was caved under the car. The frame work was so badly bent and twisted that all of the seats were raised up nearly a foot from their original positions in the car. The entire rim of the steering wheel was broken off, the windshield smashed, and the engine damaged. The car was pulled out of the gutter by a wrecker and brought to this city. It was practically a new machine, when the accident occurred.

Mrs. R. L. Barnhart was the first person to reach the scene of the accident after the crash. She lives about five hundred yards distant and heard the crash. Looking out she saw the car in the ditch. She called her husband, and then ran to the scene of the accident. Mr. Barnhart followed closely after and assisted Harper in getting the men out of the car. Those who saw the position of the car when it came to a stop against the concrete say that it was almost a miracle that all three men were not killed. Coroner J. P. Caldwell will hold an inquest, probably on next Saturday.

Leader in City

George L. Patterson was born in New Castle 54 years ago, being the son of the late William and Harriet Patterson, and has always lived here. He attended the local schools and later Princeton College. Completing his college career he became engaged in the banking business and at the time of his death was a director in the First National Bank of Lawrence County and the Union Trust Company. He was also quite extensively interested in various manufacturing interests of the city.

He was a member of Mahoning Masonic lodge, Scottish Rite, and Syria Temple, the latter of Pittsburgh. He was also a member of the B. P. O. E. of this city and a former president of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce. He has always taken an active interest in civic and industrial improvements and could at all times be counted upon to assist in any undertaking tending toward the progress and betterment of the city and county.

He is survived by his wife, Wilhelmina Patterson, and two children, William Patterson Jr. and Mrs. Mary Kinney, the latter of San Antonio, Tex.; also by two brothers, Rufus Patterson of this city, and W. L. Patterson of Baltimore, Md.; and two sisters, Mrs. Julia P. Quinn of Philadelphia and Mrs. Edward King of New Castle.

Pending communication with Mrs. Kinney, his daughter, the time of the funeral has not yet been determined.

MAY NEVER FIND BODIES OF FRENCH ATLANTIC FLYERS

the attempt to make a non-stop flight from this city to Paris is going to develop into a sensational contest. Aviators Lloyd Bertaud and Clarence Chamberlin are all set for their hop-off at Curtis Field on Saturday morning at 2 o'clock, weather permitting.

But another aviator, Charles A. Lindbergh, of San Diego, Calif., is racing towards this city in a Wright motored Ryan monoplane and he plans to set out for Paris as soon as possible after he reaches Roosevelt Field, Long Island. Lindbergh reached St. Louis late yesterday, announcing that he would continue on his way to New York today.

Search At Newfoundland

New York, May 12.—Hope for the French fliers, Captains Charles Nungesser and Francois Coli, centered today on Newfoundland where, if they landed, they may still be alive in the wilderness. The most optimistic naval fliers do not believe they are still on the surface of the ocean if they were forced down at sea Monday.

The possibility that the fliers may have landed in the Canadian wilderness is based on reports from Harbor Grace that a farmer there distinctly heard the exhause of an airship at nine o'clock Monday morning. Harbor Grace was near the line of flight of the aviators.

Reports from Paris that Nungesser said he would head inland if overtaken by fog off the Newfoundland Banks gave added hope to those who believe he may yet be found.

Supporting the theory that the fliers may have landed in some remote place in Canada, or may have crashed there, is the first official word of their proposed route, to the effect that Nungesser planned to fly inland over Canada, if fog prevailed.

EXCHANGING THE SECOND LIBERTY BONDS

ALTHOUGH the maturity date for the second Liberty loan was fixed for 1942, the government reserved the right of redemption, in whole or in part, on or after November 15, 1927.

The offer of an exchange of the original bonds, bearing 4¼ per cent interest, for a five-year issue at 3½ per cent interest, was made by Secretary Mellon last March, and bonds to the amount of nearly a million and a half were so converted. This left the rest with the original interest.

The treasury now gives notice that these will be taken up in November. Whether they will be paid in cash or the privilege of conversion extended remains for the secretary to decide.

This is one more episode in the remarkably successful reduction of the public debt for which Mr. Mellon deserves so much credit. Various other reductions with a saving of interest to the government are in prospect. It is doubtful if anyone contemplated this speedy paying off of the loans when they were made; nor would it have been possible had the treasury department been in unskillful hands.

The financial achievements of the Coolidge administration are, indeed, among the most conspicuous in the history of the nation.

A NATION OF TALKERS

THE fact that there are nine times as many telephone calls made in the United States in a year as in either France or England does not prove the American more garrulous than his English cousin and fellow-republican of France. Despite telephonic statistics a journey abroad convinces the American that both the British and French are more given to loquacity.

Searching elsewhere for the reason for the wider use of the telephone in this country one finds several contributory factors. There is a greater development of rural telephone lines here because the American farmer is more prosperous and more isolated, making it possible and necessary for the farmer to enjoy this modern method of instant communication. There is the further reason that the telephone is more highly developed here.

An outstanding cause for the greater use of the telephone in this country than in Europe lies in the fact that private capital controls the American phone and the European telephone systems are government owned and operated.

In England, France and other European countries competition is not present to improve the telephone service and the telephone user is at the mercy of the government administration. Governments have ever been more successful in improving the service of privately owned public utilities than in improving government-owned utilities.

Government ownership of the postoffice has proven reasonably successful here, but the war-time experiment in government operation of the railroads was nothing short of disastrous. At present the public shows no inclination to play off the rubber. Experience has shown the American that he usually gets more for his money from private business than from the government.

STRIKING AT IGNORANCE

WHEN the next census is taken in 1930, there will be found no illiterate Georgian of school age if plans of the state university are carried out. Education is to be made free and compulsory for every boy and girl in Georgia.

But Julian Harris, who for many years through his newspaper has waged a war against illiteracy in the cracker state, points out the weak point in the plan.

What is to be done for the adult illiterates, of which Georgia has more than her share? More than four-fifths of the Georgians who can neither read nor write are over 21 years old. More than a quarter of a million voters in Georgia are illiterate. It is plain that these adult illiterates present the greates educational problem.

Here is a problem quite separate from the teaching of children. Heretofore the state government has done nothing. What was done was financed by individuals and organigations with the interest of the state and nation at heart.

Georgia does not rank lowest in literacy among the forty-eight states, although few others have greater obstacles to overcome in educating their citizenry. Large areas are sparsely settled, it has a large negro population and there are many mountain people who don't believe in education either for their children or themselves.

One can imagine no better way in which a government might spend the people's money than for diminishing existing illiteracy and making illiteracy impossible in the future.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:07. Sun rises tomorrow 4:45.

The president of the National Conference of Social Work declares the crime wave is a myth and adds that the jails and penal institutions of this country contain fewer people now than they did ten years ago according to the population. They might contain less but they did not have any window weight murders by the pair in them.

San Francisco wants the National Republican convention next year. This will make a nice trip for those delegates in the east who will get their expenses paid to the pow-wow.

A hick town is a place where the sociable postmaster will lick your stamp and affix it.

It is said that the striking coal miners in Indiana are enjoying fishing trips, rides to distant points in motor cars to visit relatives and friends, seeing the sights and also many trips to Europe. Even at that we are for the coal miners and they cannot enjoy too many pleasures to annoy us. It is the birds who get big pay and do not work much and want all others to also do as little as possible that we are against.

It is claimed that it is hard for an American to favor this country's debt stand and be received with any degree of hospitality in France. Those who are fools enough to expect that in France deserve the snub they are sure to get. Ask the soldiers about France.

Gov. Fisher has vetoed the bill which provided that only one prosecution could be brought for a single violation of the liquor laws. As at present a county court can try a man for the violation and the federal courts can also legally try him for the same offense. It does look like double penalty but at the same time too many take a chance on the double punishment at that.

There are a lot of people in New Castle who have made a lot of money by the grace of the citizens of this city who have handed it to them. Many of the same people have never done a thing for the city or any person in the city. A printed list of these cooties would be interesting. The time has come when they must change their tactics and loosen up and help do the things here that will have to be done. We could get along without them but we could not get along without those who are doing all they can do to help things be made better. Don't be a cootie.

The conviction of the Snyders and Grays so suddenly should be a warning to those who contemplate swinging window sash weight on those they do not think well of.

Our idea of an interesting situation is being aboard an ocean steamship that is rushing to a port because there is a fire raging in its hold. Yelling fire, murder, suicide, succor, aid, help and so forth would be of no avail.

In many noted murder cases women are being rejected as jurors. This surely is discrimination with a vengeance.

A wee bit of a young lady in New York has been arrested for marrying four sailors. She has tried to prove that having a mate in every port is not confined to men now.

Nowadays the only way a man can tell a woman's summer clothes from her winter ones is by the color and that is pretty hard to do unless you are an expert.

There are plenty of patriots who are willing to serve their country, state, county and city—in public office.

This is the time of year when it would seem to be delightful to be employed by this commonwealth as a bee inspector, so that we could inspect the political bees that are buzzing around.

Down in Mexico it is reported that Mexican police are shooting traffic law violators. If that was done in this country, there would be a general massacre.

So a lot of new millionaires were made last year? That's what the income tax reports say. If it isn't one thing that decreases the number of Democrats it is another.

Flood relief has put into the back ground farm relief and it will soon be forgotten as a political issue by everyone except those who think Mr. Coolidge has been president long enough, without considering the good times of the present and a certainty of a continuation of these times in the future.

A Philadelphia preacher attributes the vagaries of modern youth to the advent of the safety razor. But the manner of shaving has nothing to do with it. The parson, we suppose, wishes to imply that the old fashioned razor implied the presence in the house of a first-class strap.

Mr. Smith gives credit to a lot of his loyal men who are associated with him in this wonderful industry. Quite right, but he really is the head of the enterprise and it is great because he makes it great and the other men help under his direction. He is the head. New Castle is proud of James M. Smith. HARRISBURG, Pa., May 12. — In Paris, two sorrowful women, the mothers of Nungesser and his companion, Captain Coli, weep and pray for their sons, lost on the ocean.

"Every week since my boy became an aviator," says Madame Coli, "I have gone to implore Our Lady of Legarde for him."

Hope that the men may return safely will last several days, even a week or two. A slow steamer or sailing ship without radio may have picked them up. The chance seems slight, but both men possess extraordinary courage and resourcefulness and may return, to attempt that ocean flight again. Nothing will stop either of them.

Dr. Raymond Pearl, chief of Johns Hopkins university biological research, says New York city will have 28,765,000 population seventy years hence. How much do you suppose a corner will be worth then with three streets one above the other, and a subway below the three?

The real New York city will be on Long Island. Manhattan will be a big business office with flying machines landing on the roofs two hundred stories high. The main local landing for transatlantic planes will be at Montauk Point, with through planes going on to Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City. Every city an airport.

In the Snyder murder case there is something more important than a horrible story, with its sash-weight, picture wire, chloroform and unlimited bootleg whisky.

The strange thing is the eagerness expressed by many, women and men, that the convicted woman and man should, without fail, die in the electric chair. Some apparently consider the approaching executions as a sort of victory for themselves.

What good will those executions do? They will add one more horror to a horrible crime. Is it desirable, in the name of justice, that a woman, screaming and struggling, be strapped in the electric chair, put to death by a combination of law and science? How much better is a legal killing in cold death than a private killing done in the heat of alcohol and bestiality? Justice must forego killing in the name of civilization before it can expect criminals to give up killing in the name of hatred, cupidity and vice.

Wall Street had a comfortable day, stocks selling at high prices, oil just a little feverish. There is more oil than the country can use, but too much is better than too little, and our twenty-two million automobiles, plus oil burning ships, locomotives and furnaces, will attend to that.

Some wonder that the flood calamity does not disturb prosperity, as did, for instance, the great fire in San Francisco. The explanation is twofold. Eighty per cent of those affected by the Mississippi flood are people whose financial status does not affect general prosperity losses, not touching great corporations or values of securities.

The California fire, bankrupting insurance companies, compelling them to throw their securities on the market and thus depressing prices, was felt all over the country. It is comforting to know that Secretary Mellon, with bankers of the north and of the stricken districts, is planning to provide immediately for planting new crops, financing purchase of seeds and machinery as soon as the waters retire.

The excellent Pennsylvania railroad train, "Red Arrow," on which this is written, traveling from Washington to Detroit, is passing through such a combination electrical and rain storm as makes mother nature seem to have an attack of hysterics. The skies are black, dark green hills pelted with heavy rain, streams swollen.

Old philosophers suggested that as there are defective units in the human family, murders, maniacs, thieves, so there may be imperfect specimens among the billions of planets sailing through space.

Ours seems to be a hysterical planet, with its wars, plagues, hatreds, tornadoes, earthquakes, famines. Fortunately it is still young, and may be only a baby planet having fits, soon to be cured.

THE MORAL OF THE MOVIES

On the first night: A hero comes treading upon the clouds to the dwelling of his betrothed.

At the gate he stops. Upon the window-blind he has seen two shadows locked in fond embrace. One shadow belongs to the heroine, the other to an unknown male.

Does he go in and find out who the mysterious stranger is? Not he. Instead he plunges into the darkness, drinking from a long black bottle and telling the world that frailty's name is woman.

Came dawn—some reels later—and he discovers that the male shadow belonged to the heroin's long-lost brother. And all is well.

On the second night: The athletic star's father forbids him to play football. The co-ed heroine the star loves asks him why he is not out for the team. He hangs his head and just says he isn't playing that year. Complications for several reels. Then the simple fact comes out and all is cleared up.

On the third night, the heroine has just said "yes" to the hero. The discomfited villain steals a letter from the heroine to a girl friend. He shows the signature: "Lovingly, Helen," to the hero, telling him the letter is one sent to himself.

What happens? Does the hero examine the letter, or go to the girl for an explanation? Not that huckleberry. He sails at dawn for Hong Kong or the Argentine. Then, finding out the villian's perfidy, he rushes home to hear the explanation he should have sought back several thousand feet of film.

If every character in every movie gave the others a chance to explain, there would be few mix-ups and few movies.

It is the tongue-tied that thicken the plot.

When we see a movie we are not satisfied unless there is a mix-up of some sort. In our lives, we are just as well satisfied if they are left out.

So the moral of the movies is: get the facts, give others a chance to explain, go to the person himself for an explanation.

Most lovers' quarrels come because they do not wait for a full explanation. Most hurt feeling arise from jumping at conclusions about what others think of us. Most insulted people, most unhappy young people and uncomfortable old people, owe their wounded feelings to similar causes.

Having a "slow brain" when it comes to arriving at conclusions that others are unfaithful, deceptive, two-faced, is a great aid to peace of mind.

An ear that is too-well attuned to catching hidden meanings and subtle slights misses much of the real music of life.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

ABOUT THAT HOUR.

I would like to have opponents of "Daylight Saving" give a good reason for their opposition in this matter. I have heard the farmer say, "You can't change the sun by law". No, there are no Joshuas nowadays. But when did the farmer cease to get up with the sun? I have heard the farmer also say that daylight savings interfere with milking time, and that chickens do not like it. When did a good farmer cease to get up before the sun, and do his chores including his milking, at sunrise. In other words, when did the farmer cease to work by suntime? And when did the cows and chickens start to "sleep in"?

If the farmer had an alarm clock by which he arose every morning, he has always been very careful to set his alarm each evening by a careful examination of the calendar for the next morning, in order to determine the exact hour when the sun rose. If the calendar was a Daylight Saving calendar, or if it was an Eastern Time calendar, it made no difference as to the particular moment when the sun rose, he figured his longitude very cleverely and made all allowances for his clock and for the time set down in the calendar.

There was a time when New Castle operated on Suntime, Youngstown, Ohio, operated on Central or Chicago time and Pittsburgh operated on Eastern time or New York time. It then took more than a good mariner to figure when the railroad trains arrived and left New Castle, according to the town clock.

Daylight saving time of course gets it name "Daylight Savings" by reason of the fact that it was a War measure, calculated to save the people some money. If it saved them money during the War, it should save them some now. It is an effort to conserve for all people the daylight hours of the morning, during which time too many citizens lie abed. Most men and women find that the morning hours are the best hours in which to do their work, that better work is done early in the morning than late at night.

Manufacturers and business men are particularly interested in the daylight saving time because employees are thereby induced to rise at least one hour earlier and spend one more good hour at work. The average employee will do more work that extra hour in the morning than he will accomplish during any other hour of the day. The good farmer, on the other hand, has always spent all of these morning hours at work.

As a matter of fact, it is probable that the greatest objection to Daylight Savings comes from the patrons of moving picture houses, dance halls, and other night amusements, for with the clock moved on an hour, the farmer boy finds the motion picture houses closed when he comes to town.

CHARLES B DRISCOLL

AN OLD SUBJECT

Just about this time of year comes the annual discussion about Mother's Day. The are plenty who say that the day is just an invention of the florists, and that the florists are aided and abetted by the telephone companies and the candy factories. I am told that the woman who originated the idea of Mother's Day has used up many columns of type in condemnation of the florists and others who would "commercialize" the idea.

Personally, I cannot join the company of the indignant. Wherever I have lived, flowers have been dearer on and immediately preceding Mother's Day than on days of no particular significance. But why shouldn't they be dearer? The florist charges higher prices when the demand for his wares is brisk. At other times he sells beautiful flowers at amazingly low prices, I think. He may manage to pay rent and taxes out of every day business, but he has to count on special days such as Easter and Christmas and Mother's Day to make his year's business show a good profit. And the florist is entitled to a good profit if anybody is. As old Omar said about the wine merchants, I know not what the florists buy one-half so precious as the stuff they sell.

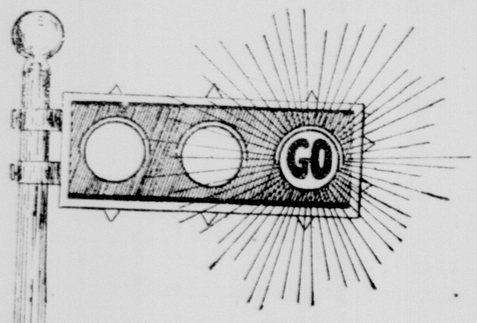

It may be well that some folk make a profit out of Mother's Day. They are welcome to their profit. We do not cry because profits are made out of Christmas toys and Thanksgiving football tickets, do we?

For my own part, I would willingly give my last coin for a flower, if only the purchase would make it possible for me to hand the blossom to my mother. That being impossible, there is an ache in my heart as Mother's Day approaches. It is so with millions, of course.

For many of us whose mothers have passed on, there remains still great joys which we may make much of. I shall certainly get great pleasure by handing a flower or a sweetmeat or some sentimental trifle to the mother of my two children. Yes, and a sentimental telegram to her mother, too. Unless I respect the mother of my children and the mother of my wife, how can I make myself believe that I would respect my own mother if she were alive again?

Let us not embitter our spirits by nourishing indignation because somebody is going to make some money. There is a high and holy sentiment that prompts each of us to render tender homage to his mother. Let us each in his own heart cherish that sentiment and give it away for at least one day.

Change in Billing Method for Electric Service in New Castle

BECAUSE of the great increase in the number of electric service customers and the inconvenience caused to them by all bills being mailed on or about the first of each month, payable on or before the 10th of the month, your electric service company has divided the city into three districts, each with its own period for receiving and paying bills.

The districts are as follows:

East and South District—including that part of the city lying east of the Neshannock and Shenango rivers.

West Side, Mahoningtown and Rural District—including that part of the city west of the Shenango river and all rural sections.

North District—including that part of the city lying north, between the Shenango and Neshannock rivers.

Bills for all districts were mailed the first of May and are payable on or before May 10.

The new system now becomes effective, so that customers in the East and South district will receive bills on or about May 10, payable on or before May 20.

Customers in the West Side, Mahoningtown and Rural District will receive bills on or about May 20, payable on or before May 31.

Customers in the North district will receive bills on or about June 1, payable on or before June 10.

In this one month, due to necessary changes in meter reading dates, some of our customers will receive bills covering a period of approximately three weeks and others covering a period of approximately seven weeks. Following May, all bills will cover the usual period of thirty days.

Due to the greater convenience for all our customers we feel sure that each of them will extend us hearty co-operation in making this improvement in our service.

Former Troop Men Joining Company B

Expect Considerable Number More To Be Added Tonight

Responding to an appeal from the officers of Company "B" a large number of former Troop "A" members were at the armory last night.

Four men signed up and were sworn in and more men promised to be present at the armory tonight.

It is felt that enough men will sign up tonight to complete the company.

About six men will probably be sufficient to get the company through the muster but there is room to take care of ten or fifteen men.

Naturally the more men we are able to show for muster the better impression we will be able to make on the inspecting officers and the war department.

It will be of interest to present members of Company B and former Troop "A" men to know that we have secured a new armory an we expect to vacate the old armory some time this week.

Men who intend to sign up with the company today are requested to be at the armory at 7:30 p. m. Daylight Savings time.

United Miners To Request Conference With Coal Owners

Fight To Obtain Committee For Wage Scale Conference Is Bitter One

(International News Service)

DUBOIS, Pa., May 12.—The scale committee representing the Central Pennsylvania Miners Union was at work today preparing to ask coal operators of this field for a conference to arrange a new wage scale.

The committee went to work as the result of the adoption of resolution at the closing session of the district convention late yesterday empowering the committee to negotiate with operators.

The committee will attempt to secure the possible agreement that will conform with the basic wage advocated by the international policy committee. Whatever agreement is reached with operators will have to be submitted to the local unions for ratification.

Sanction for the committee to undertake a wage conference followed a three hour debate behind closed doors at the final session of the convention here.

It was reported that dozens of formal conditions and recommendations submitted by the various locals in the district were discarded by the convention. It was in lieu of these recommendations that the committee was empowered to act alone.

What does it get you, when all is done,
To dice with folly and jest with drink?
What in the end would you say you've won
By putting your vices in printer's ink?
What is this freedom of mind you crave,
If at the last you are habit's slave?

Mock at morals and scorn the laws,
Fling your sneers into virtue's face;
Shriek with glee in your brilliant cause;
How have you furthered the human race?
What of joy does your freedom give
To this life on earth which we all must live?

Call him a low-brow toiling there;
Call her silly who sits alone,
Keeping a little house clean and fair;
What if these people were never known?
Boast that freedom you hope to win,
But you never can better the world with sin.

Wise the thinker who sees afar
Age and honor and virtue's cause,
Who, though his visions but hazy are,
Governs himself by a code of laws.

In spite of the sneer on the cynic's face.

Would Amend Divorce Cause

Dr. C. E. Macartney Of Pittsburgh To Ask Change At Church Assembly

PRESBYTERIANS MAY CHANGE PROGRAM

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—Having as its objective more rigid restrictions against divorce in the Presbyterian church, an amendment to the church laws will be introduced at the General Assembly of the church in San Francisco, May 26 to June 1, Dr. Clarence Edward Macartney, minister of the First Presbyterian church here announced today.

Dr. Macartney's resolution, prepared as chairman of the sub-committee of a general committee on marriage and divorce would eliminate desertion as a cause for divorce, leaving adultery as the only charge recognized by the church.

Dr. Macartney pointed to "an alarming increase in divorces granted by the courts of the country as an indication that the very foundation of the home is threatened with destruction."

"The remedy," he said, "can be effected only by wise teachings with regard to marriage."

The committee report recommends that the Presbyteries of the church be asked to consider an amendment to the Confession of Faith, governing law of the church, recognizing adultery only as cause for divorce.

"It is well known that in many cases so-called desertion is not wilful and prolonged on the part of one of the parties, but an artificial and technical desertion which is the fruit of conspiracy and collusion," the resolution reads.

"This has led to great abuse. The so-called innocent persons in a divorce brought upon the grounds of desertion may present themselves to a Presbyterian minister and thus, technically, be within those grounds recognized by the Confession of Faith, and yet at the same time be parties to mutual conspiracy to rid themselves of their former marriage relationship."

Desertion, the resolution points out, for all practical ends does effectually dissolve the full marriage relationship, but questions whether such a dissolution should be recognized by the church as a right to remarry.

Dr. Macartney urged his church to join with the Episcopal, Methodist, Lutheran and Reformed churches in recognizing only the one cause for divorce.

The resolution cited the case of the Presbytery of Butler, (Pa.,) in which the Synod of Pennsylvania reversed the Presbytery and ordered restored to the church roll a minister who had been suspended from the ministry for entering into a marriage contract soon after he had secured a divorce from his first wife on the ground of desertion.

"We note what has been observed so often, and is constantly being stated in articles in the secular and religious press of the land, "the resolution states, "the appalling increase in divorces. The church can't be silent converning the abuse of the principles of the gospel in the dissolution of the marriage tie, and the remarriage of divorced persons.

"In the family of Protestant churches bound by confessional statements," the resolution states further, "the Presbyterian churches are the only one which recognize desertion as cause sufficient for dissolving the marriage relationship. The other principal communions, Episcopal, Methodist, Lutheran and Reformed Church in America, the Reformed Church of the United States, the Christian Reformed church recognize but one ground for divorce, namely adultery."

Dr. Macartney's proposal was approved by his sub-committee and will be acted on by the full special committee at a meeting in San Francisco May 24, preparatory for presentation of the final report to the General Assembly.

Schick Test Shows Diphtheria Treatment Highly Successful

MERCER, Pa., May. 12.—That the schick test has a value in determining those who are immunized from diphtheria by the serum treatment and those who are not is shown by the report of 11 reactors found out of 153 tested in the Sharon schools it is stated today by Dr. S. J. Dickey, county Medical Director who with Dr. H. Lafferty the school physician of Sharon is conducting the test.

The 11 mentioned as reacting to the test would mean that they are not inoculated and subject to the disease.

It is stated that about 500 to 600 children are to be examined just as soon as it is possible.

Desires To Dissipate Misunderstanding Of Feeling On French Fliers

By FREDERIC K. ABBOTT

(Copyright, 1927, by International News Service.)

PARIS, May 12.—With the desire to dissipate any misunderstanding that may have arisen in the United States over exaggerated reports of Anti-American sentiment in France following the failure of Capt. Charles Nungesser's non-stop flight to New York, Premier Briand today gave an exclusive statement to International News Service expressing France's appreciation of sympathy expressed in America over the tragic ending of the attempted air voyage.

"I am certain," said Premier Briand, "that I express the unanimous sentiment of France at this time when I tell you how moved were the French people by manifestations of sympathy shown throughout the United States for the heroic attempt of our two aviators—Capt. Charles Nungesser and Capt. Francois Coli.

"We well know that the same hope united all hearts on both sides of the Atlantic—those same hearts that are today bound together by common anguish.

Liberal Army To Be Disarmed In Nicaragua

(International News Service)

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 12.—Following a conference at Tiltapa between Henry L. Stimson, "Peace Envoy" of President Coolidge, and Gen Moncada, commander in chief of the Liberal army, Gen. Moncada today definitely agreed to disarm his forces.

The movement of 800 United States marines supported by nine airplanes to reinforce Admiral Latimer's forces in Nicaragua for the policing of the whole Republic, is under way today. The aircraft tender Aroostock sailed from Quantico, Va., with six planes and personnel, and is under orders to stop at Charleston, S. C. to take on 100 marines. Four hundred marines sailed from Quantico on board the navy repair ship Medusa. Orders were issued for 300 marines to sail at once from Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, on the submarine tender Argonne. Three airplanes with personnel will leave San Diego, Calif., immediately. When these forces arrive at Corinto the total number of United States marines in Nicaragua will be approximately 3,000.

Drive the car that established 10 world records—

5000 miles in less than 5000 minutes!

The COMMANDER

A STUDEBAKER BIG SIX

Only by owning a Commander can you avoid taking Commander dust on hills and highways

FROM one Coast to the other, The Commander is smashing records of speed, records of hill climbing, records of sales!

5000 miles in less than 5000 minutes

In a recent sensational test at Culver City, California, under the auspices of the American Automobile Association, Harry Hartz and three other noted pilots drove The Commander—a strictly stock, fully-equipped enclosed car—5000 miles in 4909 minutes, total elapsed time, establishing ten new world records.

This is better than mile-a-minute speed for 81 consecutive hours and 49 minutes—the fastest speed for the farthest distance ever attained by any stock car!

It is equivalent in stress and strain to 25,000 miles of ordinary driving. Yet in establishing this and nine intervening world records, the only mechanical repairs necessary on The Commander were three grease cups (damaged in hasty greasing), and one spark plug.

The Commander Out-climbs All Other Cars

In another public contest, five automobile dealers in Batavia, N. Y.,

At Culver City, Cal.

challenged Studebaker's repeated statement that The Commander will out-perform any car selling within a thousand dollars of its price.

The scene of the contest was a long hill near Batavia with an average grade of 10%. The 3 tests were:

1. To climb the hill in the slowest possible time—without slipping the clutch.
2. To climb the hill, from a standing start, in the fastest possible time.
3. To climb the hill, from a flying start, in the fastest possible time.

At Batavia, N. Y.

The Commander won all three events easily! In the slow-time event, one of the most widely advertised sixes in America was unable to make the grade without shifting gears.

In addition to this proof of Big Six supremacy, The Commander carried a load of ten men, weighing 1653 pounds, up the hill in high gear. Then to cap the climax, The Commander carried 17 men, weighing 2794 pounds, to the top in high, the speedometer reading 35 miles at the start and 22 miles at the finish.

Climbs 10-Story Building

In Washington, D. C., the Capitol Garage dedicated its new $1,000,000 building by inviting all the automobile dealers to engage in an indoor hill-climbing contest—a climb of twenty ramps, ten stories in height.

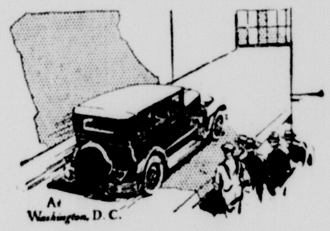

The Commander wound its way easily up the steep ramps in high gear—and 5000 people cheered its victory over the field. After the contest, 102 drivers of different cars tried to equal The Commander's time-record—but every one failed!

What These Records Mean to You

You probably will never need mile-a-minute speed for 5000 miles—you may never want to enter a hill-climbing contest. But these remarkable records are proof of what we have demonstrated time and again on Studebaker's 800-acre Proving Ground—that The Commander in every phase of every-day driving will out-perform and out-live any other car, six or eight, selling for less than $2500.

Drive The Commander Yourself

The best evidence for you of the thrilling performance of The Commander is what the car will do in your own hands. Get behind the wheel of a Commander as our guest, without strings or obligation. Learn for yourself why the Studebaker Big Six now far out-sells the combined totals of all other cars in the world of equal or greater rated horsepower.

At Washington, D. C.

The Commander's ease of handling, comfort and custom beauty, are a revelation in motor car luxury at a One-Profit price. 'Phone us now and take command of The Commander today!

Harry Hartz wired us after setting 10 world records in The Commander:

"Based on my experience driving my personal Studebaker Commander and in making the recent record run at Culver City Speedway with a Studebaker Commander strictly stock model, it is my opinion that it will maintain any given speed, up to sixty-five miles per hour, longer, more smoothly, and at less expense per hour traveled, for gasoline, oil and repairs, than any other stock automobile now being built in the United States."

Prices of The Studebaker Commander:

Commander Sedan, $1585; Commander Victoria, $1575; (broadcloth upholstery, $1645); Commander Coupe, $1545; (with rumble seat, $1645).

All prices f. o. b. factory, including front and rear bumpers, snubbers all around, and four-wheel brakes. More than $100 worth of extra equipment included at no extra cost.

Other Studebaker models from $1165 to $2245; Erskine Six models, $945 and $995.

Sheep Raisers See Bigger Wool Profit In Pooling Product

(International News Service)

AMHERST, Mass., May 12. — Sheep raisers of Massachusetts who a year ago pooled their wool, had it made into blankets and then sold the product, thus getting much larger profits than if handled otherwise, are contemplating a similar scheme this year.

The plan worked out so well a year ago that J. C. Cort, head of the dairy and livestock division of the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture, is making plans for a consolidation of the farmer's product again.

The experiences of the wool pool last year indicates many profitable possibilities. By marketing their wool in this way the growers received from 20 to 30 cents a pound more than they would otherwise have received. Farmers who sold their blankets at retail received 61 cents a pound for their wool; those who sold at wholesale received 51 cents.

The general plan of the pool was worked out many years ago by C. D. Richardson of West Brookfield, one of the largest sheep raisers in New England. It takes about 10½ pounds of wool as clipped from the sheep to make a blanket. Each farmer receives back from the mill as many blankets as his wool would make, one blanket for every 10½ pounds he put in.

The farmer also pays the cost of making the blankets and the general expenses of the pooling plan. This amounted to $2.90 last year.

Most of the farmers who have gone into the pool plan have found a ready retail sale in their own communities for the blankets which are of a high grade. They usually bring about $9 each. Deducting the $2.90 cost he has $6.10 instead of $3 which the country buyer would have given him. The blankets find a ready wholesale market at $8 each.

ORIENTAL RUGS

A number of discriminating ladies from New Castle have asked me to make an exhibit of Oriental Rugs and genuine embroidered linen in this city. For a long time I found myself unable to devote my time to this display. However, after considering it repeatedly, I have decided to give those who are interested in Oriental Rugs an opportunity which, I am sure, they will appreciate. They will appreciate this opportuntiy because it is the first time that rugs of this nature have been shown in this city. This is the first time in which beauty and quality in Oriental Rugs are united at New Castle. And as one of the admirers writes:

"Are there not many lovers of true art? And are you not serving them? Are there not many who understand and appreciate the beauty, warmth and durability of Oriental Rugs, of artistic creations? Why, an Oriental Rug is more than a piece of art, more than a floor covering. There is sentiment in it, love and hope; tears of joy; songs of romance—these and the weavers philosphy of life, his love and idea of nature are all woven in a Persian rug. Yes, an Oriental Rug is more than a piece of art. If there is any one piece of furniture which makes the home that piece of furniture is the product of the handloom.

"In showing Oriental rugs here and offering them at your low and honest prices, I believe you are doing a service to New Castle and especially to those who appreciate and love them because love is woven in them."

In appreciation of this admirer of Oriental Rugs and of many others, I am displaying these products of the human hand for one week only at RIO JANEIRO, May 12.—Search along the Brazilian coast for Captain St. Roman, the French aviator who has been missing for one week since he took off from St. Louis, Senegal, to fly across the Atlantic ocean, has been given up.

The president of Brazil has informed the French government that the search conducted along the Brazilian coast has been fruitless.

Experts here believe that St. Roman was forced down in mid-ocean and that his plane was soon swamped and all on board lost.

Andrews Confers With Art And Literary Men In Latest Controversy

Seek Solution To Problem Of Allowing Obscene Literature To Enter Country

Art Works And Books Valued At Thousands Of Dollars May Be Banned

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Seeking the hair-line that divides art from obscenity, General Lincoln C. Andrews, drink and literary censor for the United States, opened a conference with a group of New York importers today, the outcome of which will have an important bearing upon what the American people may read.

Importers forced Andrews into the censorship job by formally filing a protest against action of New York Customs authorities in refusing admission to shipments of "The Arabian Nights" and Boccaccio's "Encameron."

Prior to the conference Andrews sent for the best dictionary in the Treasury to obtain a definition for the word obscene. The Customs law provides that books of obscene character shall be barred from entrance to United States.

This was what Andrews learned: "Obscene—filthy, foul, disgusting; offensive to chastity or modesty; expressing or presenting to the mind or view something that delicacy, purity and decency forbied to be exposed; impure, indecent, unchaste, lewd."

Andrews and Frank Down, acting Customs Commissioner, will sit as an informal court to determine whether or not the tales presented in the fantastic "Thousand And One Nights" come within the meaning of the statute and Webster.

Moral Searchlight

The moral searchlight will be focused upon Boccaccio's collection of stories and if this work and the Arabian phantasy do not meet the requirements of the law they will be black-balled along with foreign rum. The literary bootleggers will boost their prices and the bibliophiles who haven't read their Arabian Nights in years will dust off the old volumes and search for romance of the past.

While Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, himself a book lover, has the final decision in Customs matters, Mellon was said not to be familiar with the new censorship. He will leave its solution to Andrews and Down.

Importers took the position that the question of the few books involved in this protest is trivial compared to the precedent which would be set if the Treasury puts up the bars against literary works containing passages regarded as somewhat beyond the bounds of modesty.

Art works valued at $53,463,700 and books of a value of 14,406,800 were imported to the United States last year. Importers said that many of the art books represented studies in the feminine nude, while among the books were volumes treating sex problems with extreme frankness.

Irrespective of the conference, tons of books, periodicals and pictures will be barred from the mails this year because they do not conform to the section of the Federal law which excludes transportation or delivery of "obscene, lewd, or lascivious" matter.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets and if you don't gain five pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back your money.

La Follette Sees New 1928 Issue

Would Centre Attention On Administration's Policy With Central America

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The administration's policy toward Nicaragua and other Central American countries will be made an issue in the 1928 campaign, it was declared today by Senator Robert M. LaFollette, spokesman in the senate for the Republican Insurgent Bloc.

The use of American marines in Latin-American republics—a policy which the insurgent denounced as "dollar imperialism"—was attacked anew by LaFollette.

"The admission by the state department that Mr. Stimson, speaking for President Coolidge, threatened open warfare on the Liberals is an amazing revelation that the President, in carrying forward his policy of ruthless imperialism in Central America, is ready to violate the constiution, which gives the war making power solely to congress" said LaFollette.

Reciting the President's utterances on Nicaragua in his recent New York spech, LaFollette declared Mr. Coolidge's "high sounding phrases are exposed as a smoke screen behind which his policy of imperialism is being conducted with renewed vigor."

"Millions of American citizens" LaFollette added, "are opposed to the President's policy of agression in Latin America and that opposition will be felt when they have an opportunity to make it effective at the ballot box."

40-Day Fasting Club, Cure All Ailments Founded In Belgrade

(International News Service)

BELGRADE, May 12.—An extremely exclusive club has been founded here by M. Alexey Souvorin, son of the founder of the Petrograd daily newspaper, "Novya Vremya."

Members of the club are pupils of Souvorin's semi-religious teaching, according to which a forty days' fast will cure man of any ailment. The first meeting of the club was held curiously enough, in a small Russian restaurant famous for its beef-steak pies.

Souvorin says he had no occasion to try fasting until, two years ago he was arrested by the Belgrade police. He fasted in protest, and was amazed at the end of forty days to find that a healthy hunger returned.

Since then he has spent all his time and money propagating his ideas, and with flowing white beard, and a bare head of perfectly new hair, he is the picturesque figure of the city.

BESSEMER NEWS

COUNTY TRACK MEET

Bessemer high school's track squad will engage in its main track meet this Saturday at Union, May 14.

All high schools in Lawrence county except New Castle and Ellwood City will be represented at the county meet.

Three classes are to be represented from the Bessemer high school.

There has been earnest training since March.

The Bessemer track team is under the supervision of Mr. Winters.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior class of the Bessemer high school again proved themselves a "regular live wire" class by having a weiner roast Monday evening.

The evening proved to be a very pleasant one and everyone felt good and at a very delightful spot the "eats" were prepared.

The class was chaperoned by Mr. Eales.

CHAPEL SERVICE

The students of the Bessemer high school enjoyed a very interesting program Thursday morning, which was under supervision of Mr. Colton. The college of Thiel was well represented, having its president and a male quartet there.

The program was very interesting. It began with a selection by the high school orchestra. The Thiel quartet gave a few musical numbers which were followed by Dr. Xander, president of Thiel College, who gave an interesting and educational address.

An announcement was made concerning the final examinations to be held in the near future.

Mr. Winters gave a talk concerning the track meet to be held next Saturday.

The cups which are to be awarded to the winners of the different classes in the events were on exhibition at the Bessemer high school. It has proven a very great interest to the members to work harder in practice. On to Union.

DOUGHNUT SALE

Last Tuesday evening the domestice science room of the Bessemer high proved to be a great attraction. Crowds gathered in a long line to purchase doughnuts made by the Rolling Pin Club. Later pupils and even adults could be seen walking down the street eating delicious products of the girls' culinary.

About 50 dozen were made, but the demand was greater than the supply.

PRESENT OPERETTAS

The operettas which have been held in the Bessemer high school auditorium have been a great success. Three operettas were given last week and one last Tuesday of this week. Each one has been well attended. Music Week this year has been appreciated by all.

SCOUT HIKE

The Girl Scouts of Bessemer high school borrowed the family alarm clock Friday evening so they could arise for the Scout hike Saturday, May 10, at 6:30 a. m. The Scouts hiked along the cement road between New Castle and Bessemer until they came to the second bridge. There they followed the creek to a pretty spot below Thompson's hill in Mt. Jackson.

The Scouts were very hungry, as it was 10 a. m. before breakfast was prepared. The breakfast was cooked hurriedly, as Miss McClellan is quite an expert at making fires. It did not take much coaxing to get the girls to eat their breakfast with such a delicious menu as oranges, cocoa (marshmallow) rolls, ham and eggs.

After breakfast, as the Scouts had wet feet from coming through swamps, they decided to go in wading. Following this there was a crab hunt.

The Scouts turned their attention to kindness to animals, for a while, as they had a very interesting funeral for Mr. Crab. As Mr. Crab was laid to rest the Scouts picked out their utensils and started home.

The girls had a very pleasant trip and though very tired, are beginning to discuss a week-end trip

STYLE SHOW

The girls of the home economics department are preparing for the style show which will be given next Thursday evening, May 19, at eight.

The manual training boys will also exhibit their products. After these events the program will be continued by the "Tumblers" of the health class.

TRACK MEET AT HILLSVILLE

Bessemer was quite successful at their last track meet, which was held at Hillsville.

The fifth grade of Hillsville was defeated by Bessemer by the score of 21 to 27.

The sixth grade of Hillsville defeated Bessemer by 27 to 21. Both seventh and eighth defeated Hillsville.

The meet was very interesting.

World Auto Race Held Next Winter On Daytona Beach

(International News Service)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., May 12.—An international automobile race meet will be staged next winter over the beach course here with Major H. O. D. Segrave, intrepid British driver recently hung up a new world speed record of more than 200 miles an hour in his huge "Mystery S," if plans under way today materialize.

It was just 24 years ago that the first automobile races ever held on an ocean beach were run at Daytona Beach and it is hoped to celebrate the 25th anniversary next year by having the world's most celebrated speed kings compete over the course from Daytona Beach to the inlet.

While definite announcement may not be forthcoming for several months it is known that plans for the proposed international event are beyond the nebulous stage and beginning to take almost concrete form.

Invitations will go forward to Americans prominently identified with automobile racing in this country and Continental speed merchants who are casting covetous eyes on the course here since Major Segrave turned in his breath-taking performance.

The American Automobile association probably will be asked to give it official sanction and management and to name the events which are expected to contribute materially to the progress of mechanical science.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic" Your Child

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin", Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

Will Find Seven Of Defendants In Case Not Guilty

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH May 12.—Seven of the 17 defendants in the Homestead wholesale liquor law violation case on trial in federal court here today, will be found "not guilty" under instructions to the jury from Judge Robert M. Gibson, presiding at the trial.

Attorney Harry A. Estep resumed his closing address for the defense when court re-convened today. Those defendants unaffected by the judge's ruling were:

Edward Klein, council president; George McLaughlin, councilman; John Richards, S. T. Horgan, J. L. Oates, Joseph Franks, Constable J. L. Conley, Sam Stein William Boniface and Emanuel McPherson.

The government alleged collusion between the politicians and bootleggers of the borough through which the latter were permitted to operate unrestricted for the payment of a "protection fee."

The seven defendants were ordered acquitted because the court felt insufficient evidence had been presented to show they were connected with the alleged "graft ring."

Coke Production Continues Slump

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 12.—Coke production continued in its slump during the past week, a survey showed today. Production totalled 115,000, a decrease of 5,930 tons from the previous week's output. Last week's total set a new low level for the year, and approximately 275 ovens were reported blown out.

The prevailing prices remained at much the same level as last week's quotations. Spot furnace was quoted at $3 a ton with foundry coke seling at $4 to $4.75.

Johnstown Man Suicide Victim

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 12.—Too intensive study of religious questions was blamed today by police for the suicide of Earl McNeal, 21, who ended his life with a shotgun in his sister's home here.

The youth obtained shells from his brother's hunting coat and then went into a bedroom and shot himself. He was the son of William A. McNeal.

De Pinedo May Make New Hop

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—Weather permitting, Commander Francesco De Pinedo, Italy's four-continent flier who arrived here yesterday, will leave for Charleston, S. C., today.

The aviator landed at the navy yard after making the trip through gusty weather from Fort Schuyler, N. Y., he was greeted by thousands of cheering Italians.

A trophy depicting the liberty bell surmounted by a statue of liberty holding aloft an airplane was given to De Pinedo by Philadelphia Italians and citizens of Italian descent at a banquet last night.

300 Sheep Killing Dogs Shot In County

MERCER, Pa., May 12.—The total returns from the licensing of dogs in Crawford County in 1926 were more than half absorbed in the payment of the sheep claims of the county which ran over $3000 and the year of 1927 promises to be even more exciting than last year.

The statement is that of Harry Higbee of Stoneboro, agent for the State Bureau of Animal Husbandry who has just returned from a visit to Crawford county which he states to be in the worse condition he has ever seen for dogs running at night.

He killed 29 dogs during the past week for killing sheep and running game.

He states that six sheep claims made were all settled and the dogs all killed.

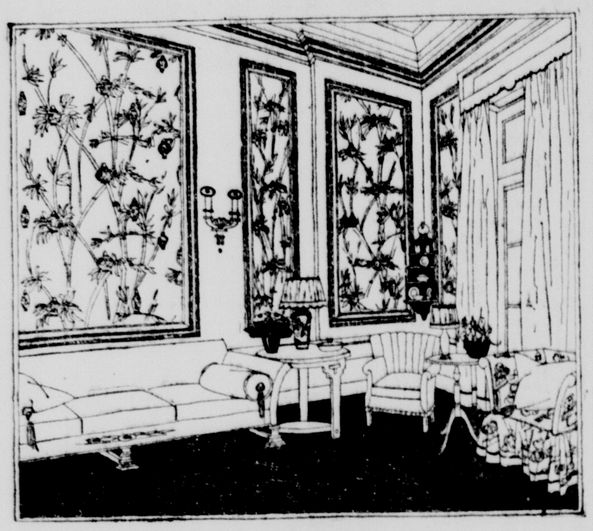

It is said that dogs running game were never known in either Mercer or Crawford counties over which Higbee has jurisdiction in the number that are at it this spring.

Higbee reports the shooting of 300 dogs in Mercer county. Just as soon as the sheep killing animals are weeded out it is the intention of the officer to bring his deputies into the county to kill dogs running at night which is proving a menace to the sheep flocks of both counties and a nuisance to the communities at large.

If he thinks it necessary to say he is captain of his soul, he isn't very sure about it.

Army And Navy To Engage In Battle For New England

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 12.—"War" has been declared and next week a decisive "battle" will be fought off the coast of New England.

Crack divisions of regular United States army troops are today concentrating "somewhere in New England", preparing to resist an invasion from the sea. They will have the assistance of harbor ships, long range fort guns and aircraft.

At dawn Monday the powerful American fleet of 137 vessels and 20,000 jack tars will steam out of New York harbor, where they are now stationed, for the "war area" and soon will strike—with all resources—at the southeast coast of New England.

It will be the annual Newport, R. I., and navy war maneuvers, to take place in the vicinity of Newport, R. I., and last from May 16 to May 21.

The contending forces will be known as the attacking "black" fleet and the "blue" defenders of the whole New England coast line.

For the purpose of the maneuvers the "war" is now actually in progress—has been, in fact, for several months. It has now reached the decisive stage. The blue land forces have theoretically denied advance into blue territory. But the black fleet has recently gained control of the north Atlantic and is in a strategic position to strike.

So everything is ready for an attack—the big battle is imminent.

Can the "black" fleet land marines on the New England coast? The fleet is practically within striking distance to make the attempt. Landing of the marines would tend to draw the "blue" forces from what might prove to be the main battlefront.

Such a thrust from the sea also offers a tempting objective because of the densely populated and well equipped industrial centers in New England. Then, too, the alternative objectives of reaching New York City by overland operations or by cutting off New England from other blue territory make probable an attempted landing on the southeast coast of New England. The blue troops are stationed in Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

The forthcoming "battle" will be spectacular, for, co-operating with the blue defenders will be destroyers, submarines and naval aviation units detached from the main black fleet.

It was explained to "war correspondents" today that the object of the maneuvers is not to test the relative powers of naval attack and land defense but to determine the logic of the tactics now in being for the defense of the New England coast.

SOWING FLOWER SEEDS

Annual flower seeds should be sowed directly in the outdoor beds after the middle of May, according to advice from Pennsylvania State College. This should not be put off too long if flowers are to be in bloom before frost comes next fall.

CONSTIPATED SO BADLY DIDN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO

All kinds of medicine failed—then ALL-BRAN saved him!

Read this tribute from a grateful user:

"I have been using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN now for about a year and a half. I was so badly constipated that I didn't know what to do. One day I read about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, went to the store and bought me a package. It did me good and I am using it regularly. I had tried all kinds of medicine but they failed. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN surely saved me."

Very thankful,
C. D. POLLIS, Argo, Ill.

Horse Racing In Ohio Under Ban

Sheriff Of Cuyahoga County Will Use Armed Force To Stop Gambling

TOLEDO TRACK IS NOT EFFECTED

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, May 12.—Horse racing in Northern Ohio, with the possible exception of Fort Miami track at Toledo apparently will be but a memory following two killing blows directed at the sport Wednesday in Cuyahoga and Summit counties.

Following Cuyahoga County Sheriff E. C. Hanratty's "ultimatum" that he would "use all men and means at his disposal to enforce the law against gambling—including betting at race tracks," word came from Akron that 22 indictments had been returned against operators of pari-mutual machines at Northampton park. Ten men were named and each faces two charges —selling tickets on a game of chance, and gambling. Whether the indictments would affect the balance of the present meet was not known.

The first racing scheduled for Cuyahoga county, is the Ohio Jockey club's meeting at Maple Heights starting May 28. Whether the program will start as scheduled is now problematical.

"Hanratty's order means the doom of horse racing in this vicinity" said J. H. McMillen, president and manager of Thistledown, the largest track in Cuyahoga county. "The sheriff has killed racing in every form."

Would Re-instate Alexander Howat

(International News Service)

PEORIA, Ill., May 12.—Illinois miners were on record today in favor of the reinstatement of Alexander Howat, deposed president of the Kansas miners, into good standing in the national organization, after listening to a lengthy address by him.

Howat advocated the nationalization of the mines, a six-hour day, and a labor party.

He claimed it is only because of the miners' union that the operators grant them agreements, and that not until all the non-union fields are organized and a full tie-up of industry effected that the operators can be "compelled to respect our full rights as they should be."

"The time has come," he said, "when the operators should be stopped from closing the mines at the expiration of each contract."

The civil ceremonies had been performed in Paris a few days previously. Although divorced, Mme. Hatmaker declared in Paris when Captain Nungesser took off: "I hope Charles succeeds. He has my best wishes." She added, however: "Our romance is over."

Not One Wallet Reported Stolen

Prosecution In Canton Trial Is Nearing Close

Defense Attorneys For Canton Officials Hope To Break Down Mazer's Testimony

(International News Service)

CANTON, O., May 12.—The state is expected to end its testimony today in the case of Floyd Streitenberger, former Canton city detective, on trial for his life in connection with the slaying of Don Mellett, Canton publisher, here last July.

Streitenberger's counsel has announced it will probably take two days to examine defense witnesses, which indicates the case may go to the jury Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

J. H. Robertson and Frank E. Bow, defense attorneys, declared today they would attempt to "tear down" the story of Louis Mazer, Canton, jointly indicted for the Mellett murder, who occupied the stand for the state during the larger part of Wednesday's session.

Mazer, in his testimony, implied that the defendant, Streitenberger, was the instigator of the plot to "beat up Mellett", which resulted in the assassination of the newspaperman. The most startling part of Mazer's testimony was his statement that the conspiracy was formulated "under the roof of police headquarters" and that a squad of police who followed the auto in which Streitenberger and himself were riding after the murder, "to pick up Pat McDermott" (now serving life for the crime), made no effort to stop the murder car and question the occupants.

Doll Carey, known as "Mazer's girl", and Thelma Harris are expected to take the stand today.

Former Chief of Police S. A. Lengel will probably be called as a defense witness, it was announced.

Childrens Library Giving Fine Circus

All School Students May Visit Library, See Parade, And Read Good Books

For the first time in the history of the Children's Department of the New Castle Public Library, a circus is being conducted there. It will last all of this week. It consists of an animal parade around the room and several circus books for the youngsters to read.

There are many good books among those listed as circus stories and the youngster visiting there will be sure to get the spirit of the circus and enjoy reading the various stories as much as they would were they to go to a real circus.

So all you youngsters who did not get to see the big show that was in town last night, come and read all about it. And you who did see it may come and learn just how the things you saw were done. Did you not wonder how circus life was? Did you not wonder how they trained the animals? We are sure you did, and that is the reason you should come to the Library as soon after school as possible and read the stories. You can even borrow the books and take them home with you. Be sure and come early as many are taking advantage of the fine opportunity and the books may be all gone by the time you are ready to come.

Trustees Of Library Have Meeting Tuesday

Plan New Shelving Space; Will Attend Annual American Library Meeting

The Board of Trustees of the New Castle Public Library met Tuesday evening, May 10, with full attendance. The matter of shelving space on the third floor was discussed. At the present time, the third floor of the Library home is vacant, if it is used for the shelving of books, duplicates and less read books will be placed there.

The fact that the Library is growing and many more people are using the books, makes it necessary to have more room.

Following the meeting of Tuesday, it was announced that Mrs. J. Lee McFate would represent the Board at the annual meeting of the American Library Association, to be held at Toronto, Canada, the week of June 20-26. One or two members of the Library staff will also attend.

One of the fast ways to take off a lot of weight would be to put the coonskin coat into storage. —The Detroit News.

Autoist Dies At Wheel; Five Escape In Crash

LANSDALE, Pa., May 12.—While at the wheel of a large sedan automobile in which were his wife, Mary, his daughter, Mrs. Frank Crouthamel, and the latter's two children, John Nevins, 56, of 4528 Carlisle street, Philadelphia, fell dead from apoplexy here last night. The unguided automobile crashed against a fence post and into a field at the Jenkins pony farm on the Welsh road on the outskirts of Lansdale. The other occupants of the machine were not injured.

Nevins was a foreman at the Midvale Steel Company plant. His daughter was sitting beside him when he slumped forward. # Say Good-Bye to Fruit Juices and Grease Behind the Oven Door

On every gas range there eventually appears a dirty brown streak around this panel—unless the panel is removed and washed often!

Grease accumulates in these crevices and seeps behind the oven door. On ordinary ranges it takes a mechanic with a kit of tools to remove this lining so it can be put in a dishpan and washed as it should be.

How Moore's Overcome It

Moore's built an oven door lining that is held in place by a little slide. Simply pull a lever and the entire lining and door panel are instantly removed for washing. See this wonderful feature during our spring exhibit!

Every good housewife has spent enough hours scrubbing and rubbing to know that fruit juices and grease from baking WILL accumulate behind oven door linings and in the crevices around oven door panels.

Vapors from the baking foods cause it, and if allowed to go uncleaned soon result in hard brown streaks that mar the beauty of the range.

The vapors seep behind the oven door lining causing an accumulation of grease that sooner or later causes odors and is a menace to health.

These vapors cannot be stopped. The only remedy is in making an oven door that can be quickly and easily cleaned!

Moore Brothers Company build such an oven door in their gas range. By simply pulling a lever the entire oven door lining and oven door panel can be instantly removed and put in the dishpan for a good washing.

Add Features To Mardi Gras

Committees Are Making Plans For Wonderful Charity Ball

EXPECT TO RAISE BIG FLOOD FUND

Subscriptions to the Mississippi flood relief fund today brought it to a total of $4,700.

Reports from the sale of tickets for the charity ball and mardi gras are to the effect that nobody is refusing to take them and a crowd should be in the Scottish Rite Cathedral on the night of May 17.

Bernard N. Hanlon, chairman of the amusement committee, stated that a meeting of his committee would be held Friday evening in the Legion Home for the purpose of getting everything in readiness for the night. On this committee are some 50 men who will have charge of the games and sports which will be held in the east banquet hall.

The dance will start at nine o'clock on Tuesday night and will last until two o'clock. The motion picture show will be at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium and the sports in the east ball room will open at the same time, interspersing the dancing will be entertainment numbers. An addition to the entertainment corps reported today is the "Where Do You Work" lads who were a hit in the minstrel show recently put on in the Franklin school. Harry Ross will also put on some of his inimitable dancing.

The purpose of this charity ball and mardi gras is to clean up in one evening the contributions asked from Lawrence county. The quota is set at $20,000 and of this amount less than $5,000 is in. By means of the charity ball and mardi gras it is hoped to bring the total somewhere near where it should be.

That "Kruschen Feeling"

Happy

It's the little daily dose that does it

Grandpa says: "With the help of Kruschen you are enabled to expel from your body, gently but surely, all the impurities that would otherwise clog the system, causing depression, lassitude, loss of appetite, headache, indigestion, rheumatism and other ills.

It is not wise to take an occasional dose of an aperient medicine that does its work violently for the moment, but brings constipation and lowering after-effects in its train. The cleansing must be done every day, for regularity and habit are essential to the body's harmony.

Kruschen Salts is the biggest selling popular remedy in Great Britain and Germany and has been for years—for that reason alone, it must be good.

Drop two tablets in your coffee or tea every morning—it dissolves instantly and you can't taste it. People who have the good habit of drinking a glass of hot water every morning will get double benefit by adding two tablets of Kruschen.

Safe To Return To Italy If One Has Legion Sanction

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 12.—American Legionnaires of Italian ancestry who make their reservations with the France Convention Committee, and thereby obtain the official Legion certificate of identification, for the trip to France with the Legion September 19 to 23, inclusive, may pay a visit to Italy without fear of being drafted into the Italian army, Howard P. Savage, National Commander, announced here today. Heretofore this was a danger to those who had not completed their compulsory military service in Italy. Ordinary passports do not provide the exemption which has been granted to those having the official Legion certificate of identification.

Advices from the Italian Embassy inform the national commander that Premier Mussolini has decided that Legionnaires of Italian extraction, bearing a Legion certi- fear arrest and possible service with the Italian colors.

Each night and morning his horse and buggy are to be seen on Bloomeburg streets and he has been absent from work less than a dozen times. Half of that time his absence was due to illness and the remaining times to high water and deep snows.

Iron And Steel Market Quiet

Weekly Report Is Issued On Conditions By Iron Age, Today

The Iron Age in its weekly summary of the iron and steel trade says: Both sales and production of steel show a diminishing tendency. So far this month new orders and specifications together call for about as much rolled steel as in the first ten days of April, but mills are for adjusting operations to an expected reduced demand paralleling the trend last year, in which July was the low point. Lacking many large single purchases, the market appears quiet, but this comes in part from comparison with its busiest periods. Steel making operations in the Pittsburgh and nearby districts are put at 75 per cent against 80 per cent two weeks ago. Some recessions are reported in the South and in the Chicago district.

Prices are no lower than they have been. The recent rise in sheet quotations has driven in a fair volume of business and much of this at advances of $1 and $2 a ton and some even at the levels obtaining in December. The firmness against concessions points to a test coming before the month is out, when renewed buying becomes necessary.

Corresponding firmness is developing in strip steel with a renewal of the effort made some time ago, and shown in all markets, to exact quantity differentials on the cold-rolled product.

Production of steel ingots in April, averaging 158,844 tons per day, made the month as predicted the largest April in the industry's history, following immediately the best record of any month, that of March. The four months' output is practically equal to the record breaking volume of the first quarter of 1926, yet the unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation were on April 30 smaller than at any time in thirty-two months.

The facts are interpreted as establishing the increasingly close ordering for needs. A survey of consuming industries points to no rapid change in the large diversified consumption shown by the statistics of shipments. That the Steel Corporation's unfilled tonnage dropped on April 30 to a figure under a minimum not reached until June 30 last year is considered in the light that since the beginning of the year the falling off in the backlog of orders has been 505,000 tons against a reduction for the same period a year ago of 1,165,000 tons.

In pig iron, some new business is coming from the automobile industry, which is expected to take as much tonnage this month as in April. In a number of important centers, however, melt is diminishing, and buyers are not expected to consider third quarter requirements much before June. At Cincinnati lagging specifications have resulted in concessions of 50c to $1 a ton by lake furnaces.

Scrap shows signs of having struck bottom at Pittsburg, where a steel company bought 10,000 tons of heavy melting steel at $16. A decline of 50c a ton is reported at both Chicago and Philadelphia. Further price recessions are reported from Detroit, where increased offerings of scrap for May delivery are concomitant with tapering purchases by mills and furnaces.

Better accord among the oil producers, looking to a curtailment of production, is expected to mean the abandonment of some 30,000 tons of plate work for storage tanks. Chicago, on this account, does not regard June as promising, and 2c there for plates is not uncommon on 25 ton lots.

Hospital Board Explains Rules And Regulations

System Of Admitting And Discharging Patients Is Told In This Article

Visitors Permitted To See The Patients At Certain Hours, States The Report

ELLWOOD CITY, May 12.—So that the people of Ellwood City will know exactly what kind of an institution is requiring the largest part of the Community Chest fund this year, and will realize that it is worthy of all the money that will be given it, the Board of Directors have submitted the following report, one of a series that is being printed in conjunction with the Community Chest Drive which will start May 23:

Rules and Regulations

The Ellwood City Hospital is an institution for the sick and the injured of our community. The management desires that no person having need of the service we give be refused.

The personal at the hospital and the equipment are for service with or without charge to the patients, and without distinction as to race of creed. The maintenance of the equipment and the recompense of the personal require that all persons able to bear their share shall do so.

Efficiency in management and regard for our varied responsibilities require that we establish a working basis for our records and accounts.

The following rules and regulations are established in this spirit:

Admission and Discharge of Patients

Patients will be admitted to the private rooms, private wards and public wards by applying to the superintendent, on the recommendation of the attending physician.

Patients, other than emergency patients, who apply for admission to the public wards, shall be examined by a member of the staff, or physician's having the privilege of the hospital, before being admitted. Emergency cases will be admitted at any time by notifying the superintendent.

Emergency operations only to be performed on Sunday.

Patients that have been ill for some time are not to be admitted on Sunday or at night.

Physicians shall be required to report applications of patients to superintendent-advising of the character of illness, disease, etc., and to make such necessary arrangements as may be required for private rooms, private ward, public ward, operation, X-Ray treatment or electrical treatment.

No person known to have Tuberculosis of the lungs shall be admitted as a patient except for surgical treatment. When so admitted, a private patient must occupy a private room, and when deemed necessary by the superintendent, employ special nurses. A public ward patient shall be admitted to a ward with other patients, but shall be isolated as the Superintendent can best arrange.

Patients shall be discharged as soon as cured. Charity patients, who, after a reasonable time of trial, are judged incurable, shall be discharged.

If the charges for private rooms or private wards are not paid when due, or if satisfactory arrangements for the payment of the charges are not made, the patient shall be moved to the public wards. In addition to the regular schedule of charges on file in the office a charge covering actual cost to the hospital shall be made for serums and special medicines.

Visitors

Visitors to patients shall apply to the superintendent's office for a permit which shall be presented to the nurse in charge.

Visitors to ward patients may be admitted daily between 2:30 p. m. and 4 p. m. and 7 p. m. and 8 p. m., and in urgent cases by special permission from superintendent. Children under 10 years of age are not to be admitted at any evening hour.

Visits to ward patients shall be limited to not exceed 30 minutes, except to members of patients immediate family. In urgent cases the time shall be arranged by the superintendent.

Visitors must be confined to one patient, and not to any other patient or part of the hospital, except by permission from the superintendent.

Visitors to private patients may be admitted daily between 10:30 a. m. and 12 noon, and 1 p. m. and 5 p. m. and 7 p. m. and 9 p. m.

No visits shall be permitted when forbidden by the patient, or physician in charge.

No fruit or food shall be taken to private rooms or wards by visitors but shall be left with the superintendent, and at her direction may be given to the patient. The name of the donor and of the patient must be placed on the package.

Patients

All patients shall observe proper decorum towards the officers of the hospital, nurses, servants and each other.

The use of profane or improper language is prohibited.

The use of tobacco is prohibited in wards unless permission is granted by the Superintendent.

No liquors, medicines or provisions of any kind shall be given to the patients, except those prescribed by the attending physician or surgeon.

No patient shall be allowed to leave the hospital while under treatment, except by special permission from the attending physician or surgeon, by order to the superintendent.

Patients may, upon request, receive visits from clergymen of any faith.

No autopsy shall be made except by direction of the attending physician or surgeon, nor without permission from the relatives of the deceased.

Patients must deposit all money and valuables with the superintendent taking a receipt therefore.

Special Rules

No information shall be given to any one concerning any patient in the hospital, except by the physician in charge, or by the superintendent, or her assistant.

Any discussion by employees with any person not connected with the hospital with reference to patients, operations, physicians or any of the details of the hospital management, or repeating anything of this character from one patient to another is strictly prohibited.

Any violation of these rules by any member of the staff, nurse or employee will be sufficient cause for dismissal.

The nurses of the hospital, under the direction of the superintendent shall have charge of the operating rooms during all operations.

Adopted by Board of Directors of the Ellwood City Hospital February, 22, 1924.

SCOUTS

What better training for a child than Scout work? It teaches a boy or girl to be accurate, self-reliant, neat, active and benefits them in countless other ways.

While the Boy Scout movement has been active in Ellwood City longer than the ranks of the Girl Scouts, the girls have made rapid strides and are fast catching up with them.

This is encouraging, for one hears so much talk of this appropriation and that appropriation for the betterment of the Boy Scout movement, while the girls were left to shift for themselves—not that they COULDN'T do this—but the sooner the girls make it known that they are on earth and want to be organized into a stronger movement the same as the boys the sooner they will be recognized.

When you see them soon with their straight young backs and uniform suits, marching proudly under Old Glory, and carefully displaying, the while, their many hard-earned medals, while they march up and down the principal streets in behalf of the 1927 Community Chest drive wou will feel proud, proud. PROUD to know that YOU are one of the big-hearted citizens helping these youngsters to come into their own.

Attractive Operetta Being Prepared By Croton Ave. School

On Thursday afternoon, May 19 and Friday evening, May 20, children of Croton Avenue school, of which W. A. Hoffmaster is principal, will present at Benjamin Franklin Junior high school, a charming little operetta entitled, "A Midsummer's Day."

The action of the playlet takes place in the flower garden of a little child. In this garden are to be found all those lovely old fashioned flowers of grandmother's day. Flowers, children and spring time seem made for one another.

A flower, a child and the time of spring—
These three are never so far apart.
A child, a flower, and the spring and love.
This world's best gifts from the world above.

All children are flowers in the garden of God's love. A flower is the mystical counterpart of a child. To the understanding heart a child is a flower and a flower is a child. God made flowers on the day that he made the world beautiful. Then he gave the world children to play amid the flowers—and no one who keeps that love in his heart has entirely foresaken the land of childhood.

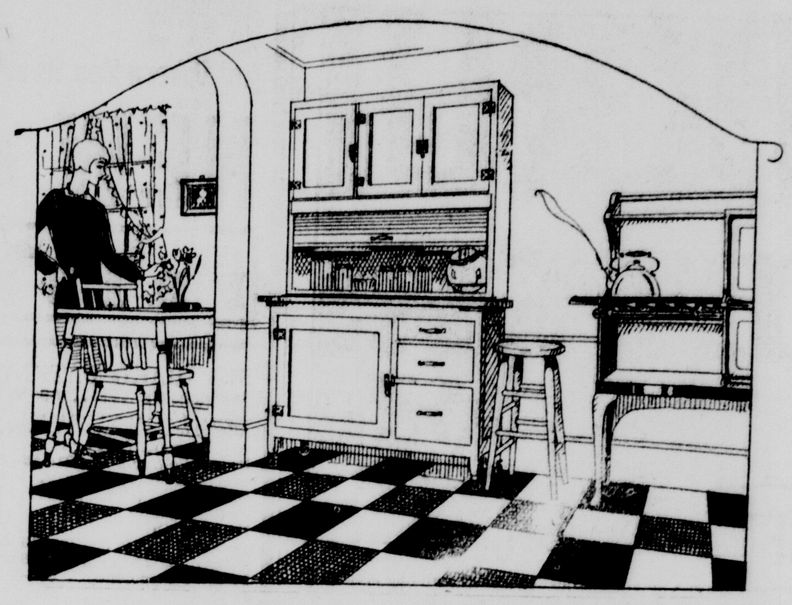

In preparing this operetta, the teachers have attempted to show the kinship of children and flowers, and it is their hope that the children and grown-ups as well who attend their performance will find therin the proof that their knowledge of what flowers really are is true and that their love for the friendly blossoms is returned many fold.

Wife To Defend Name On Stand In Coast Trial

Dorothy Mackaye, Wife Of Slain Comedy Star, To Take Witness Stand

MAID SAYS KELLY SLUGGED RAYMOND

By ARTHUR L. MAREK,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, May 12.—Dorothy Mackaye awaited her turn today to take the witness stand at the murder trial of Paul Kelly. Miss Mackaye will defend her name, linked with that of the young film player in as asserted love motive for the fatal beating of her husband, Ray Raymond, musical comedy star.

Although the actress has been summoned as a state witness, her attorneys announced she will be given an opportunity to refute imputations in the testimony of Ethel Lee, her negro housemaid.

The servant girl, placed in the witness box yesterday to give an eye-witness account of the fist fight, which, the state charges, caused Raymond's death, dealt the defense a double blow when she told of intimate associations between Kelly and the actor's wife.

During the two and a half months that Raymond was with his company at San Francisco, the witness revealed, Kelly called nightly at the stage door of the local theatre where Miss Mackeye was appearing. "Many nights," the house girl declared, Miss Mackaye did not return home.

Telephone calls to Kelly's apartment on the following morning, the maid added, found Miss Mackaye there.

The servant told of Raymond's return and of the dramatic meeting when Kelly stormed into the actor's home to "have it out." Kelly struck the first blow she said, when Raymond demanded to know his wife's whereabouts.

Kelly was the aggressor in the fist fight that followed, the negro domestic said, with Raymond pleading that he was ill and had been drinking. The strapping screen boy floored his smaller opponent at least five times, the witness estimated.

BIRTH RATE LOW AMONG LEARNED

Children Generally More Healthy Though, Claim Made By Investigators

CHICAGO, May 12.—Families of janitors, mine laborers and gravel pit workers in the United States are increasing twice as fast as those of authors, editors and preachers, according to Glen B. Winship, New York novelist, in an address here before a meeting of sociologists.

"Recent investigation of 929 typical American families showed that people of high education had an alarmingly low birth rate," said Mr. Winship. "It was found that janitors and sextons, miners and quarry workers had an average of 3.6 children per family. Ministers, novelists and editors averaged 1.8 children per family.

"Lawyers, teachers and doctors showed a total of 2.1 children. Workers in boiler factories, street car men, and chauffeurs averaged 3.1 children per family.

"While higher education showed a tendency to lower the birth rate, there was a larger proportion of healthy children among college-bred parents. Children of physicians, strangely enough, had a high death rate and those of specialists an even higher one."

Downtown Centers Despair Of Churches Say Presbyterians

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 12.—"The downtown sections of our great cities have become the despair of the church" says the Presbyterian Board of National Missions in its 125th annual report to be presented to the Presbyterian General Assembly at San Francisco May 26-June 1.

"During the last quarter of the nineteenth century" the report continues, "Southern Europe discovered America and promptly began to do exactly what the original settlers did in the case of the Indians; they crowded the native Americans out of their home. This created a problem of church administration which has not yet been solved. The better conditioned people left the community and took their support to a less crowded section of the city or suburbs, leaving the home church in a growing population of alien peoples with a greatly depleted membership composed of the less prosperous portion of the congregation. Just as rapidly as these people grew in prosperity they moved away while the need of the community for the church and its ministry was growing greater every day. This development has been going on for more than 50 years so that the downtown sections of our great cities have become the despair of the church."

The synods of New England, New York, New Jersey, Baltimore, Pennsylvania and West Virginia contain 43.6 percent of the membership of the Presbyterian church where in 1910 they contained 44.7 per cent. There is one Presbyterian in these synods for each 44 of the population.

NEW CASTLE'S BUSINESS IS YOUR BUSINESS

Some folks say it is the duty of the Steel Corporation to finance the Chamber of Commerce. Others, say "The Steel Corporation and one or two of the other large industrial concerns ARE running the Chamber of Commerce. Both statements are equally absurd. First—the Steel Corporation has not reached that point where they are so dependent on New Castle (or any other city for that matter) that it is incumbent upon them to finance the Chamber of Commerce. Second—suppose just for a minute, the Steel Corporation or some other outstanding industrial enterprise should decide to close down or move from New Castle. How would you feel about it, Mr. Business Man; Mr. Merchant or Mr. Property Owner? Now is the time for all citizens to join hands—work together to help develop existing industries—thus attract new industries.

It is the duty and privilege of everyone doing business in New Castle to help build and support the Chamber of Commerce and assist in carrying out the Industrial Development Program.

The Steel Corporation has indicated its interest in the future welfare of New Castle, as evidenced by the receipt of their subscription of $1,000 to the Chamber of Commerce Project Budget Fund. This subscription carrys with it one vote. The citizens of New Castle are asked to subscribe for a $25.00 membership, which likewise carrys with it one vote.

You, as a citizen of New Castle have ideals. You know the kind of a city in which you want to live and work and do business. Help make New Castle that kind of a city by co-operating with other good citizens to make operative the Industrial Expansion Program.

The modern Chamber of Commerce becomes the true friend of the community in the degree to which it becomes a keen listener to the suggestions which come from its members. It is an opportunity for every member to present any proposition he thinks of importance to the welfare of the city, as well as to offer constructive criticism of existing conditions.

The Chamber of Commerce is a persistent and irrepressible "rooter" for the advantages of its community, industrially, commercially, geographically and socially. It secured publication of articles in newspapers and magazines referring to the desirability of its town as a location for new residents and new industries as regards the healthfulness of climate, progressive spirit and hospitable nature of its citizens, educational advantages, low freight rates, excellence of train service and easy access to centers of population, fertility of soil and abundance of natural resources, historical associations, etc.

Other Cities Have Done This

Here are some examples of the activity of various communities in "community advertising". The funds are obtained by public subscription, as we are doing in New Castle.

Atlanta, Ga., $1,000,000 for 3 years.
Ashville, N. C., $100,000 per year.
Biloxi, Miss., $10,000 per year.
Brunswick, Ga., $25,000 per year.
Chattanooga, Tenn., $50,000 per year
Vorpus Christi, Tex., $5,000 for '25
Corpus Christi, Tex., $15,000 for '26
Dallas, Texas., $40,000 per year.
Greensboro, N. C., $15,000 per year
Norfolk-Portsmouth, $250,000 for 3 years
Wilmington, N. C., $25,000 per year
San Antonio, Texas, $50,000 per year
Savannah, Ga., $50,000 per year and many others

Those communities which have industrial and commercial assets, natural or acquired, have recognized their vaue as first rate talking points in their community advertising. They have found that it pays and pays BIG.

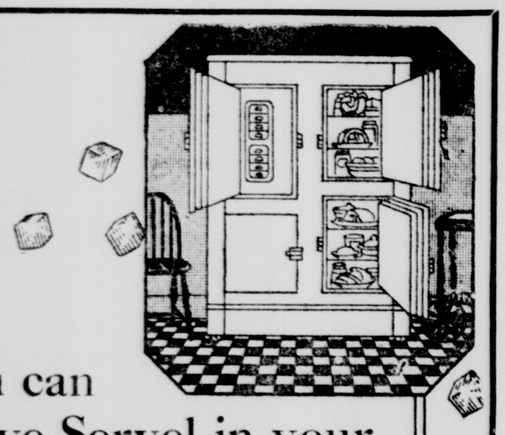

These communities which have nothing of this sort are getting busy in order to hold their own with the communities which have been so favored. Competition between cities is just as keen as is the competition in private business.

The Chamber of Commerce is the best means for representative community development. What other organization can bring together all types and conditions of men? The Chamber of Commerce is non-political, non-sectarian and non-partisan, through which the community can think on terms of equality and can translate that thought into action.

Quieter than the kitchen clock

64 Engineers cooperated to develop this simplified, quiet refrigerator

Stand three feet away from a General Electric Refrigerator and you probably won't know whether the motor is on or off. It actually is quieter than a clock. This is just one of the results of the General Electric process of simplification.

This new-day refrigerator never needs oiling. It uses very little current—it costs less to run than the average family ice bill. It has an all-in-one unit that is hermetically sealed to keep efficiency in—and trouble out.

Over a period of fifteen years, sixty-four engineers worked toward this great electrical achievement. Only an organization with the world-wide facilities and the unlimited resources of General Electric could have put so much man-power and so much money behind the development of a single product. But, now that the goal is reached, General Electric backs their product with an unqualified guarantee—the sign of their confidence in this really revolutionary refrigerator.

Models for every home are now on display. Come in and see them.

EGYPTIAN ENVOY TELLS HOW NILE IS FORCED TO BEHAVE

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Mahmoud Samy Pasha undoubtedly has told more floods "where to head in at" than any other man in the United States.

M. Samy is Egyptian minister in Washington.

He's an engineer. His engineering specialty, at home, is making the Nile behave.

Regularly every year, since long before the first pharaoh began building pyramids, the Nile has started to go on the rampage, just as the Mississippi did this year.

With equal regularity, the river control folks have taken the venerable stream in charge, adapted all the solid part of it to soil fertilization, utilized all they wanted of its liquid ingredients for irrigation purposes, and emptied the rest out into the Mediterranean, as casually as you'd drain the water out of your bathtub.

Of course it mustn't be assumed that the Nile control system was as perfect when Moses was still living in Egypt as it is today.

Even then it possibly was better than our present Mississippi river system, but M. Samy doesn't feel that that's boasting much about it. Now, however, he assures us, it's as dependable as a flivver factory.

They simply don't have Nile valley floods, M. Samy says.

They have irrigation, because they need it, but it's regulated to a bee's knee.

M. Samy put all his trust in levees.

They have gates in them to let out such water as the crops require—that much and no more—and that's all they do let out.

They're stronger levees than the Mississippi's, and higher. They have a five-foot safety margin, instead of only two feet, as on the Mississippi. Some are set back from the river half a mile or a mile and some are not, depending on circumstances. In places there are two sets.

"Oh, yes, the initial expense is high," agreed M. Samy, "but they pay for themselves."

There also are revetments where they're needed, and the river's course is given a certain amount of direction, but in the main the system is one of levees.

As for breaks—

"There's no danger of breaks," says M. Samy, "if leaks are stopped promptly, and that's a mere question of careful watching, and having plenty of men on the job the minute they're needed."

The Egyptian government provided the men by conscription, as for military service. They don't have to be sent for. They're there. There's a jail penalty for not being.

"It works, anyway," is M. Samy's knock-out answer to all the critics of the system.

M. Samy isn't enthusiastic over headwater reservoirs.

Egypt has one of the largest in the world—formed by the Assuan dam.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

THE WAY OF A WEASEL

Weasel got down upon all four legs and slowly stretched himself, and then, for the first time, the Boy had a good chance to look at the fellow closely.

"Gee whillikens! What a long distance there is between the tip of your nose and the end of your tail, Weasel! Why, your body is almost as long as a snake's, and it doesn't lack much of being about as thin. I'll bet a cookie it is not much thicker than my father's thumb!"

"Of course, it isn't! How do you think I could 'snake' my way into burrows and twist myself around winding corners if I were fat. I would get stuck, and then I would be hunted by those I went to hunt."

"But your legs are so short and so far apart!" insisted Peter.

"Who said they were not? But that makes them all the better for walking like this!" declared Weasel, and rearing himself into the air he pranced about on his hind feet, his forepaws and his head bobbing along a bit in front of the rest of his body, and in spite of the fact that he was so small and so slender he made the boy think of a Kangaroo. The Boy chuckled. Weasel heard him.

"Pooh! If you think that is funny, this will make you laugh the louder", said he, and suddenly he dropped upon the ground, then reared up again, but this time it was his tail and his hind feet that were waving in the air. Before Peter could say a word all Weasel's four feet were upon the ground again and the fellow was walking about on his two front paws alone—he might have lost the two back ones for all he seemed to need them. He did look comical, and the Boy laughed until the tears rolled down his cheeks. Then all at once he noticed that Weasel had stopped showing off and was standing quietly in front of him and making a strange murmuring sound. Had his fooling made the fellow ill?

"What is the matter, Weasel?" asked he, bending over to look in his new friend's face. "Are you moaning? Where is the pain?"

"Haven't got any pain! I wasn't moaning!" declared Weasel, looking up. "I was laughing. Every time I prance about like that it makes me feel jolly. I can just imagine how I must look! But you are the first creature that has ever stood still and watched me. The others run away. Ha! Ha! How I frighten the Four-Feet! Well, I guess you know everything about me now. Oh, no; I forgot to tell you one thing. I just dote on Frogs. I wouldn't care if there were no other creatures in the land if only I could find plenty of frogs to dine upon. And, by the way, where are those Chipmunks? Lacking Frogs, Chipmunks would do, you know! As sure as I am a Weasel I had almost forgotten them. How Fox will sneer at me and how provoked he will be. Tch! Tch! Tch! How will I explain matters to him? It's all your fault, Boy, for being here. You made me neglect my duty and now you must help me!"

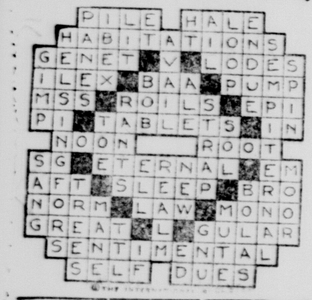

Next: "Sure of Himself".

The meanest form of vanity is to visit those less fortunate than yourself in order to enjoy the contrast.

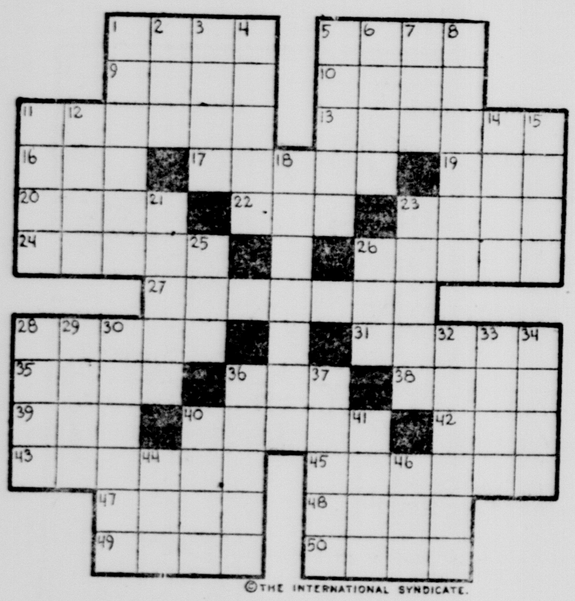

You've noticed of course, that the flapper denounced is just one of a species—never a particular girl known to the critic.

Motion Presented To Open Judgment On Note Given Bank

Motion to open judgment was presented to court Wednesday in the case of The Farmers National Bank of Butler use of W. H. Humphrey against George T. Sherman and W. H. Humphrey. In his petition Sherman says that in February 1913 he and Humphrey were stockholders in the Household Manufacturing Company, incorporated in New Jersey.

They needed $600 to meet a pay roll and borrowed the money at the Farmers National Bank, giving a joint note. Later it is claimed that Humphrey had the note assigned to him and entered a scire facias on it against Sherman for the full amount. Sherman claims that as it was a joint obligaton, he should pay only half the note. Judge Hildebrand granted a rule on Humphrey to show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should be granted.

Junior High Pupils Inspect News Plant

Make Tour Of Plant To See How Daily Newspaper Is Made

On Wednesday afternoon a number of ninth Grade pupils of the Vocational Civics class of the North Street Junior High school made a tour of the New Castle News offices and printing rooms.

The students were shown by Bart Richards, one of the editorial staff, just how a newspaper was made from the time that information is received by telegraph, telephone or personally in the editorial rooms until the papers come off the printing press several hundred a minute.

This class under the leadership of Elmer O. Delaney are making several trips to different industries and occupations of the city in order that they may have a fuller knowledge of the different vocations in considering preparation for their life's calling.

Those who were with Mr. Delaney in the News office yesterday are:—Charlotte Bartlett, Maxine Bollard, Harry Davis, Clarissa Duff, June Duff, Alma Frankhauser, Madge Gardner, Peggy Griffiths, Myrabeth May and Carl Mitchell.

Keeper Attacked By Lion At Show

WILMINGTON, May 12.—Hugo Schmidt, 45 years old, an animal trainer, is recovering today from injuries received late last night when he was clawed by a lion as he was about to start his act at a carnival appearing in this city.

Schmidt appeared in a steel arena with a group of lions, tigers and leopards, and just as he was about to make his bow to the audience prior to the opening of his act, one of the lions leaped at him and struck him on the hand. The flesh was ripped to the bone. A negro youth, an attendant, leaped into the arena with a revolver, and drove the animal back by firing several blank cartridges. Schmidt was treated by Dr. Willard Springer, but declined to go to a hospital.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

During cleaning days the meals must be simplified as much as possible. Cooking a large piece of meat such as ham, one day and then serving it cold and then as leftovers is one solution. Ham is almost universally liked so if your family is not exceptional they will not mind several meals with ham as the meat dish if it is served in different ways and with different things. The first meal might be of broiled sliced ham, the slices to be cut from the ham by the butcher at the time of purchase. Then Virginia baked ham the next day, sliced cold the next, and so on.

Virginia Baked Ham
Scalloped Potatoes Green Onions
Watercress Salad
Quick Cake with Chocalate or Lemon Sauce
Tea or Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Virginia Baked Ham—Boil ham slowly, allowing one hour for every two pounds of meat. Then allow the ham to cool off in the same water in which it was cooked. Remove the skin, sprinkle the ham with brown sugar and bread crumbs. Place it in a pan and pour a quart of apple cider over it after first puncturing the meat with a skewer. Stud with cloves and as it bakes in the oven turn over at short intervals and baste with more cider. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about one hour.

Quick Cake—One cup sugar, one and one-half cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, sift all together. Melt one tablespoon shortening in a cup, add one egg and fill cup up with milk. Add to dry ingredients and stir well. Bake in dripping pan.

MENU HINT

The following menu for a day was planned for people who are fighting rather high blood pressure. Little meat, a sparing use of salt and other seasoning, and careful attention to the diet keeps the blood pressure down to normal.

Breakfast

Orange Rolled Oats
Old-Fashioned Brown Sugar Cream
Bran Muffins Butter
Maple Syrup
Coffee Substitute

Luncheon

Cottage Cheese Salad
Baked Carrots Hard Rolls
Butter Pineapple Jam
Stewed Prunes Milk

Dinner

Swiss Steak Served on Toast
Gravy Baked Potatoes
Butter Coleslaw
Spinach Seasoned with Butter
Home Canned Peaches
Coffee Substitute

Coleslaw—Shave cabbage fine. Add a small piece of green pepper and one small carrot grated. Mix lightly with as much mayonnaise as desired, made as follows: Beat one egg, add two tablespoons oil. Beat again. Add two more spoons oil and beat well. Add two teaspoons sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon red pepper. Beat again. Now add one cup oil, one-quarter at a time and keep beating until you have added the full cup. Now add two tablespoons vinegar and beat again. Add one-quarter cup oil and one tablespoon lemon juice. Beat well. Keep in a cool place.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Baked Carrots—Prepare as many carrots as needed. Cut lengthwise, if large. Season with a small amount of sugar, salt and pepper to taste, add a generous lump of butter. Bake until tender, with just enough water to keep from scorching.

To Scale Fish

Dip fish into boiling water for a minute and it will scale easily.

DERBY RACE TO DRAW THRONG TO LOUISVILLE

Bostonian Is Big Favorite

Eastern Horses This Year Look Good To Outrun Western Entries

WHISKERY APPEARS DOUBTFUL WINNER

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—Bostonian, winner of the Preakness; his stable companion, Whiskery, which ran third; J. N. Camden's Hydromel, the still hopeful Scapa Flow, W. J. Salmon's Black Panther, the Bradley pair, Boo and Bewithus, and that overnight contender, Rolled Stocking, of the Parrish barn, were the standout candidates today, 48 hours before the running of the great Kentucky Derby.

Of course, every eligible at the Downs is a dark horse, but gentlemen are known to like them both light of head and hair, and those designated are dark like table linen. They will get the play at the one-way windows—always in but seldom out. Their rise to prominence has served to create the usual division between the sections, emphasized to a greater degree in the Derby than in any other race. Hydromel, Rolled Stocking and the Bradley entry are the hopes of the West; the Whitney pair, Bostonian and Whiskery; Black Panther and Scapa Flow are from the East.

Dark Horse May Win

It would be an apt commentary on the customer attempt to beat the game at the track if none of the admitted contenders paid off after the race. But the fact of the matter is that form is served much more rigidly in the Derby than in the Preakness. The only corresponding race of the early season when form is mostly the bunk. Still the boys know very little about some of those mentioned, and maybe that is as good a reason as any for giving them a play.

Rolled Stocking, for example, has run one good and one bad race this year. But the good one was no later than Saturday last. So the boys are thoroughly convinced. The colt beat Osmand six lengths in a derby trial at one mile in 1:38 3-5. Very good for the Downs. Yet if he steps on Saturday the way he did at Lexington to finish fourth behind Hydromel, Buddy Bauer and Aregel in a field of four, he won't be a race horse; he'll be a pursuer.

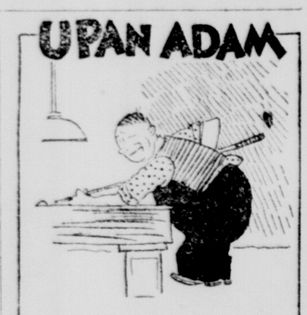

Neither Boo nor Bewithus has been out under colors in some time. The former was good at New Orleans, the latter was better at Lexington, but if the colts weren't owned by E. R. Bradley they probably would attract as much attention as a man with a head.

Bostonian's only start as a three-year-old, barring an indifferent performance at Jamaica, was at Pimlico on Monday. True, he won the Preakness impressively and without postmortems but, outside of that you have to go back to his two-year-old campaign to get a line on his racing. This shows that he ran often and well, being rarely unplaced. He seemed to show a fondness for going a distance, which if true will do him practically no harm in the Derby.

Bostonian Favored

All in all, we will have to accept the belief that Bostonian is quite a colt; at least, until he proves to be otherwise.

Whiskery, the other Whitney entry, may or may not improve on his Preakness effort. If he doesn't he is out like a man going to lunch.

"The famous English racing Derby was founded in 1780 by Lord Derby but nobody's ever admitted designing the headpiece."

Even taking into consideration the fact that possibly he burned himself up racing Scapa Flow into submission, the horse was in a position to win in the stretch if his drive was that of a prospective champion. Sometimes, however, the Preakness failure becomes a Derby success and perhaps it will prove true in Whiskery's case. I am betting the other way.

Four Good Games In Twilight Loop Scheduled Tonight

There will be four good Twilight League games played tonight, providing the rain holds off and the atmosphere warms up a little. The games are scheduled to start at 6:30 o'clock daylight savings time.

The National Radiator Colored Stars will appear at Hillsville to battle the league champions, Shingledecker and Toy have been assigned as the umpires. The Edenburg and South Hill boys will battle on the South Hills field, with Adams and Farmer as the officials.

The Ryantown team will journey to West Pittsburg to try conclusions with the Garlands and Park and Dancko will handle the game.

The Lawrence Indies were supposed to have played the Troop B team at the Cedar street field tonight, but the Robinson circus yesterday made the field unfit for play. The game has been transfered to the Troop B field at Coaltown, with Hudson and Nolte as the umpires.

The double umpire system will be tried out tonight for the first time in the Lawrence County Twilight loop. Commissioner Glitch assigned the umpires.

Pirates And Boston Tie

Rainfall Weakens Meadows And Boston Deadlocks Score

PIRATE CHANGE IN LINE-UP GOES GOOD

BOSTON, May 12.—Rain halted the Pittsburgh-Braves contest here in the eighth inning yesterday with the score four to four. Up to this session the Pirates had a lead of two runs but the downpour affected Lee Meadows pitching and the Boston team drove in two runs that deadlocked the score.

Donie Bush's revamped line, or Harris at first and Grantham at second looked good to the observing eye and on Joe's first appearance at the bat he doubled to center field and eventually scored a run that put the team in the lead, while Grantham had a hit, a run, three putouts and four assists.

Bob Smith pitched against Meadows and he held the Buccos to five hits. Smith has proved an enigma to the Pirates whenever the teams have played at Boston and yesterday was no exception. Meadows went good until the eighth when Boston found him for two runs that deadlocked the score. The box score:

SORDS POINTS

Lafayette You Are Come—At The Right Time

By NORMAN E. BROWN

When you've had a chance, for a fleeting instant at least, to land a regular job on a pennant contending team and then find yourself sent to the cellar warmers the sensation isn't what the flappers would call thrilling.

Lafayette Fresno "Chick" Second Basing Thompson passed through that experience and emerges a contented, ambitious ball player—and not far from being an all-fired good one, with the Phillies.

As a matter of fact, Lafe is one of the youngsters who have helped, under Stuffy McInnis's clever handling—to make the Phillies a bigger and better baseball club. His playing at second has been one of the bright spots of the inner defense and his hitting has been all that could be desired—and more. Recent averages showed him batting over the .340 mark.

Stuffy's Phils need better fielding than they are getting right now, according to the fielding standings, but that isn't worrying McInnis. Thompson, young Wrightstone at first and young Spalding in left field are coming through in great shape generally. The fielding will take care of itself later, Stuffy feels. And as the matter stands now the Phils are no longer food for vaudeville jokes.

Thompson hails from Alabama and will be 34 on June 6. He was graduated from a high school in New York City, according to available records, and got his start in the pro ranks with Grand Island in 1923. The next year he served with Omaha and his work there caused the Pirates to sign him. After working out with the Pittsburgh team in the spring of 1925 he was sent to the Kansas City club.

He was recalled late that season and got a chance tot break into a few games with the team, then plunging toward the world's championship. Before the 1926 campaign started, however, he was sold to Buffalo. He was with that club but the property of the Giants when the deal was completed last winter that sent him and Alex Ferguson and John Scott to the Phils, Burleigh Grimes and Harper to the Giants and Butch Henline to the Dodgers.

INDIES DEFEAT ENERGY 8 TO 5

Independents Defeat Energy Wednesday In County League Game 8-5

The Independent A. A. defeated Energy 8 to 5 in a seven inning game played last night on the Energy field. It was the first league victory for the Indies. The game was played in a drizzle of rain.

The Independents started things to buzz in the first inning by crashing out enough hits off Van-Eman to tally four runs. Colo was on the hill for the Indies and came through with a fine pitched game, although nicked for ten hits he kept them scattered. VanEman gave way to Duncan in the later frames of the battle.

The leading hitters for the Indies were Ryan, F. Ross, Mash and Chill. For the Energy outfit the hitting of Duncan with three lingles and Brown featured.

The fielding features of the game were sensational catches by "Dutch" Ross in the sixth and Frankie Ross in the seventh. Bill Augostine also turned in some difficult catches.

New York Teams Lead Both Loops

Giants And Yankees Setting Fast Pace In Both Big Leagues

BY LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 12.—New York's baseball teams are setting the pace in both leagues today. The Giants handed the Cardinals a 10 to 1 drubbing yesterday and knocked the world's champions out of first place in the National League, while Babe Ruth's eighth home run of the season enabled the Yankees to beat the Browns again, 4 to 2, and keep their two game lead over the White Sox intact.

The Giants slaughtered Jesse Haines, who had been leading the league pitchers with five victories and no defeats, while the Cards couldn't hit McQuillan with a sash-weight. Hornsby hit his sixth homer and drove in five runs in all.

Ruth's four base swat ruined Ernie Nevers, who twirled for the Browns. Ernie was good but Urban Shocker was better. The Browns are now in seventh place.

R. Ted Lyons of the White Sox successfully amputated the three game winning streak of Horace Lisenbee, youthful Washington twirler. Lyons held the Senators to four hits and Ward hit a double with the bases jammed as the Sox won 4 to 1.

Ban Johnson plastered a $200.00 fine on Ty Cobb promptly vented his ire on the Tigers, clouting two doubles and stealing a base. The Athletics won 3 to 1, Quinn outpitching Holloway.

Hack Wilson delivered his sixth homer but the Cubs lost to the Phillies 5 to 2. The Phils advanced to third place, while Chicago flopped back into second division.

Cincinnati took a lease on the National League cellar by losing to Brooklyn, 7 to 5. Both Pete Donohue and Jess Petty, the starting pitchers, took their showers early by request.

The Boston Braves had the Pirates on the run when rain halted the game in the eighth with the score tied at four all.

Rain held the Indians and the Red Sox idle.

Homestead Grays Trim New Castle

Famous Colored Team Applies Whitewash Brush To O. & P. Team

LOCALS GET BUT PAIR OF HITS

"Smoky" Joe Williams had the Indian sign on the New Castle O. and P. league team in the tilt at Centennial field on Wednesday night. The Homestead Grays behind a two-hit showing by their star hurler gained a 7 to 0 victory here.

The New Castle boys could do nothing with the tricky delivery of the colored heaver and were credited with but two safe bingles both of them singles, Jamieson and Meis divided pitching duties for the locals and were found for 12 hits.

The Grays tallied one run in the first inning and were held scoreless until the fourth when they bunched hits to score three more runs. The visitors again bunched hits in the fifth and chased over two more runs. Their final run came in the seventh frame.

The Grays hit when hits meant runs and they made the most of their opportunities. Williams fanned ten of the local batters to face him. Jamieson accounted for six batters via the strikeout route before giving way to Meis.

Washington, Britt, Owens and M. Harris led the attack for the Grays. Swartz and Jamieson had the only hits for New Castle.

What Fate for Fator? By Feg Murray

Ask almost any real judge of horsemanship who is the greatest jockey now in the business of booting home thoroughbreds, and nine out of 10 will answer you, "Laverne Fator of Rancocas Stable". Some will go even farther and will say that Fator is one of the two greatest American jockeys of all time.

Be that as it may, Laverne Fator, who rides for Harry Sinclair, has never had the thrill of bringing in a Kentucky Derby winner, and it may be that his ambition will be realized during the present week. For if the Rancocas stable has no entry at the big race in Louisville next Saturday, it is quite possible that Fator will ride for some other outfit. He has had the leg up on three mounts in past Kentucky Derbies, but, to use his own words, "has never been even close". Laverne rode W. R. Coe's Pompey in 1926, and the Rancocas Stable's Mad Play and H. P. Whitney's Wildair in former years.

Fator, like Albert Johnson, who piloted last year's Derby winner, and Earl Sande, came from the real jockey country, the great Northwest, and took part in rodeos as a cowboy before he became a jockey. He has two brothers who also ride, and he is about 30 years old. Last year Laverne ranked third in actual winnings. Of the $195,915 which Fator's mounts accounted for during the 1926 season, $65,980 was won by Scapa Flow in the Belmont Futurity.

The 1927 season did not start auspiciously for this, the cleverest of all jockeys. He went to Havre de Grace especially to ride Crusader in the Philadelphia handicap and, thanks to all sorts of bad luck, went unplaced. But he came back with a bang two days later at Jamaica to bring Silver Fox in a winner in the Paumonok handicap on April 25 by a brilliant display of horsemanship. He seemed fairly to lift his thundering charger over the line to win by inches in one of the most masterly exhibitions he has ever put up.

Feg Murray Says—

The trouble with the present day championship fights is that no matter how often the referee cries "break", neither fighter is going to be broke.

College Track Team Will Meet Tech

Westminster Athletes Going To Pittsburgh For Dual Battle Friday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., May 12.—With six weeks of hard training behind them, members of the Westminster College track squad will have the first opportunity of testing their wares in competition Friday afternoon at Pittsburgh, where Carnegie Tech is to be engaged in a dual meet.

Tech showed rather poorly against Geneva and Pitt, but Westminster is not taking anything for granted. The Blue and White squad is not any too well balanced itself, and indications are that the competition will be a nip-and-tuck affair.

Coach J. W. Coleman has not yet definitely decided the personnel of his squad. He will doubtless have Captain William Wilt of Ligonier and William Hartwell of New Wilmington, for the dashes; Orvil Mirtz of Pittsburgh, Wesley Rose of New Castle, and William Allen of Volant, for the distance events; Albert Berry of Eighty-Four and William Crowell of Sharon, for the quarter; Walter Hutchison of New Wilmington, and Kenneth Delehunty of Iselin, for the pole vault and high jump; Edward Brown of New Wilmington, for the high jump; William Thomas of Farrell, for the broad jump; Henry Bucher of New Wilmington, Leland Cooper of Evans City, and Charles Ayres of Canonsburg, for the weights. Delehunty will run the high hurdles and probably broad jump in addition to his other events, while Hutchison will also figure in other field events.

The squad will leave by bus early Friday morning.

Railroad Team Gains Fine Victory Over Croton In County League Games

Vallely was effective in the pinches, and the P. R. R. team gained their second victory of the Lawrence County League on Wednesday night at Marshall Field, by downing the Crotonites 8 to 3. The game was stopped in the fifth inning on account of darkness.

Frampton opposed Vallely on the hill and yielded eleven hits that went for eight runs. The Railroad boys tallied in every inning with the exception of the second. Croton could not hit Vallely when hits were needed.

Huff with a triple, and double was the leading hitter of the game. Picarro with three hits featured for the winners. Ross the Croton first-baseman had a pair of hits, and was the only Croton player able to solve the tricky delivery of Vallely.

County High Schools To Compete Saturday At Union High Field

Annual Lawrence County track meet will be held at Union High school Saturday, May 14. All senior and Junior high schools of this county will take part except New Castle high and Ellwood City.

New Wilmington, Union, Bessemer, East Brook, Shenango, Wampum, Enon, Princeton, Volant, Mt. Jackson, Harlansburg and Hillsville will all have representatives in the field Saturday. Their entries will be listed as A, B and C classes. A will consist of those from the Junior and Senior classes of Senior highs; B, Freshman and Sophomores; C will take in those from the 7th and 8th grade.

A silver cup will be given the school winning in each class, while individual effort will be promoted by the giving of a gold medal for every first place. Bronze medals will be given those taking second honors, with ribbons for third place. It is expected that the relay race will be very close and should give the spectators a good bit of excitement. The team winning this race will receive 4 gold medals.

According to the way they have shown up during inter-school track meets, New Wilmington, Bessemer and Union will be the strong contenders for honors at the meet. The college town school is especially strong in the A class with good B and C classes also. Bessemer and Union each enter the field with a strong combination in their B and C classes. Many of the other schools have promising young runners and jumpers and may fool the prophets when they once enter the different events.

The following will be the list of events run, with close competition in each:

440 yd. dash, Classes A, B and C.
220 yd. dash, Classes A, B and C.
100 yd. dash, Classes A, B and C.
880 yd. dash, Classes A and B.
220 yd. low hurdles, Classes A and B.
880 yd. relay, Class C.
1 mile relay, Classes A and B.
Shot put, Classes A, B and C.
Running Broad Jump, Classes A, B and C.
High Jump, Classes A, B and C.
Pole vault, Classes A, B and C.
Discus, Classes A and B.
Javelin, Class A.

The meet Saturday will be handled by Westminster. It will start at 11 a. m. Daylight Savings Time, after the schools have registered at 10:30, and will be held on the Union track field. The 200 and 180 yd. track at this school is the best dirt track in the county.

Last year the meet was held at New Wilmington, which in 1925 it was held at Union.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Donie Bush has made a drastic change in the commissary department of the Pirates.

Heretofore, the members of the team, while the club has been on the road, have received a stated sum each day from which to purchase their meals, where and when they chose.

From now on the players will eat at a hotel at the club's expense.

Bush ordered the change in system when he decided that some of the players, at least, were short changing their stomachs. There was a tendency on the part of some to seek the most food at the smallest figure and save the rest, as the ads say.

There is nothing new in Bush's discovery. Baseball club officials have battled for years with the eating problem. The system of feeding the players at a given hotel has its drawbacks due to the personal peculiarities of the various players. Naturally the style of cooking may not appeal to one or two members of the team. Others who eat as it comes through the winter develop super sensitive stomachs and howl to high heaven regarding the flavor of the soup or the kind of rolls.

Others, loving everything, literally "eat up the gate receipts." Others find it hard to refrain from overeating with the variety of food offered them on the daily menu—and the realization that the bill is to be footed by the club and not themselves.

However, the one big argument in favor of the hotel dining room is that the athletes, whether or not they admit it, usually receive properly cooked food and plenty of it.

Speaking of eating.

I recall a player with the Cleveland club years ago who was in the habit of ordering two steaks at night for dinner, requesting a raw egg in a glass of half-and-half for his drink, and then topping off his full dinner with at least two kinds of fancy pastry. His bill probably ran around $3.50 a night. His breakfast was a rather healthy one—the half-and-half and egg being in order, in addition to iced fruit, mackerel, cereal and whatnot.

Years ago at least the custom of the clubs on the railroad journeys to and from the south was to give each player a stated sum per day with which to purchase his meals on the train. This money was a windfall to the more economical ones who would wait long past regular eating hours for a 10-minute stop at some junction and then dash madly into the restaurant and buy a couple of sandwiches and a bottle of pop.

One of the most prolific eaters in baseball history was Al Mamaux—when he was pitching for Pittsburgh and Brooklyn in the big time. Babe Ruth, up until the time his stomach went on a strike a couple of years ago, was the greatest asset the hot dog industry had.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 12. — After an irregular opening, in which prices of the active stocks were decidedly mixed, the market moved forward in the early trading today, under the lead of the Nickle Plate rails, the motors and a few specialties. Oil stocks also showed the effects of the latest move for consideration of crude oil supplies, most of the independent oils selling at fractionally higher prices.

Buying of the Nickel Plate rails was based on prospects of Government approval of the preliminary plans of the trunk line consolidation, in which it is proposed to segregate the stock holdings of the various roads from the operating company. New York, Chicago & St. Louis—the parent Nickel Plate, jumped 10 points to 205½ in the first period, while Chesapeake & Ohio, Erie and Pere Marquette, the other members of the merger combination, were in demand at higher prices.

Chrysler led the low-priced motor shares with an advance to above 46. General Motors was quiet on the eve of an important meeting of the directors of the company, at which an extra cash dividend is expected to be authoried. Hudson and Packard sold higher.

On Friday morning, May 13, each student of the Senior High School will be asked to contribute two cents to a fund which will be raised in order to pay the $25 membership fee of the Senior High School into the Chamber of Commerce of this city.

At the present time the Chamber of Commerce is conducting an expansion movement for this city. It plans to raise $45,000 this week for the purpose of advertising and boosting New Castle. The object is to gain 1,000 new members to the Chamber at $25 per membership and to ask contributions to the budget fund to make up another $25,000. It also plans to add 3,000 to the population of this city within a year.

Principal Frank L. Orth believes that the Senior High School should be a member of the Chamber of Commerce and it is for this reason that the students will be asked to contribute two cents. Prof. Orth also asks that no contribution be greater than ten cents.

The Senior High School can do a great deal for this movement, he believes. He urges that the students boost and support NEW CASTLE, THE BEST CITY IN PENNSYLVANIA, and help it to grow.

May Now Seize Property Used By Bootleggers

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 12.—Federal prohibition agents here today were considering the filing of wholesale seizure libels in Federal court to have the property of convicted manufacturers of illicit liquor forfeited to the government.

The decision of Judge F. P. Schoonmaker in Federal court, which ordered the forfeiture of a two-story building, and three and a half acres of land owned by Joseph Lazzari, and located on the Monongahela-Elkhorn road, will be the basis for further seizures, dry agents said.

Proceedings for seizure of Lazzari's property were filed by D. B. Heiner, Internal Revenue collector here, who stated in the information that Lazzari failed to register his still with the Internal Revenue collector's office, and thereby violated the law which permits confiscation of property.

Lazzari denied any knowledge of the still and other paraphernalia for manufacturing liquor being located on his property. He claimed he rented the basement of the building to another man, but the latter failed to appear in court and Judge Schoonmaker, from the bench expressed doubt that such tenant existed.

Leaps From Auto Stalled On Track Before Engine

(International News Service)

BRADDOCK, Pa., May 12—Patrolman Ray Queenin narrowly escaped death here today when he leaped from his automobile which had stalled on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks a minute before a train traveling 60 miles an hour demolished the car.

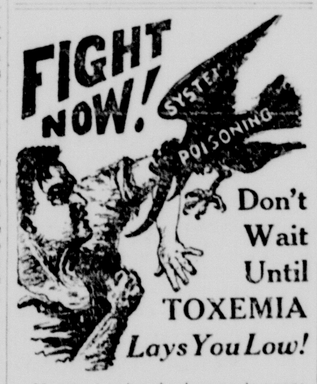

The locomotive struck the car with such force that the latter was picked up and hurled several feet against an unoccupied watchman's shanty which was wrecked.

Six years ago the patrolman was in a similar accident at another crossing here. His companion was killed in that accident and Queenin was in the wreckage when the train was stopped. He was in a hospital several weeks.

WARREN PASTOR AT EMMANUEL CHURCH

Rev. Rich is an able and interesting speaker and every member of the congregation should make an effort to attend the services.

Don't Wait Until TOXEMIA Lays You Low!

Not one in a hundred suspects a case of System Poisoning, professionally called "Toxemia"? Its warning signals are many. Headaches, pains, nervousness, stomach disorders, lack of appetite, or even constipation may be signs of an approaching attack. Don't wait until it brings on some dangerous disease. Fight the symptoms NOW, with the first warning sign. Take PARTOLA, the internal antiseptic laxative. Ordinary laxative waters and pills do not dislodge the poisonous bacteria that cling to intestinal lining. PARTOLA is safe pleasant, leaves no after distress or weakness. Millions of men, women and children now use PARTOLA. Any good druggist sells regular box 30¢, Double size 50¢.

for Modern Streets

THINK of the traffic in your town twenty years ago. Not much of a problem then, was it? But today Times have changed and the streets of yesterday are as obsolete as a 1907 motor car. Now streets must be specially designed for durability, safety and uninterrupted use

Resilience is built into the modern vehicle. Its roadway must be rigid, maintaining an even surface under impact, wear and temperature. The concrete street meets these requirements perfectly—and it is the safest pavement wet or dry.
